Difficult to work out on the BB but kinda get it and seems to make sense.

Cheers,

Hi, we have thought of a possible solution to the issue if you agree. We think we could just cut out a section of the Welsh VO and also not have Victor pointing to the Welsh yes and no words. Have highlighted the sections to change (NB this is the old text – it will show the correct yes and no as on official ballot). Please confirm if you would be happy with this?

English

Victor produces the referendum ballot paper from his desk, and holds it forward so it fills the screen. The "Yes' and 'No' boxes are clearly visible – he points to them as they are spoken.

You'll receive a ballot paper with this question:

"At present, the UK uses the first past the post' system to elect MPs to the House of Commons. Should the 'alternative vote' system be used instead?"

Vote 'yes' if you think alternative vote should be used. Vote 'no' if you think first past the post should be used.

Victor removes the ballot paper and puts it back in his desk, smiling.

Welsh (yellow line to be edited out):

Victor produces the referendum ballot paper from his desk, and holds it forward so it fills the screen. The "Ie' and 'Na' boxes are clearly visible.

Byddwch yn cael papur pleidleisio gyda'r cwestiwn hwn:

"Ar hyn o bryd, mae'r DU yn defnyddio system 'y cyntaf i'r felin' i ethol ASau i Dŷ'r Cyffredin. A ddylid defnyddio'r system 'pleidlais amgen' yn lle hynny?"

Pleidleisiwch 'ie' os credwch y dylid defnyddio'r bleidlais amgen. Pleidleisiwch 'na' os credwch y dylid defnyddio system y cyntaf i'r felin.

Victor removes the ballot paper and puts it back in his desk, smiling.
