Postal voting –
a quick guide for party workers and campaigners

www.electoralcommission.org.uk/guidance

- Do explain the postal voting process, but do not use undue influence to affect another person's vote.
- Only the voter (or their registered proxy) may mark the ballot paper and they must do so in secret.
- Do not offer to return someone else's ballot paper envelope, but if you are given a completed ballot paper, do ensure the envelope is sealed and return it without delay.
- Do not do anything that might question your honesty or integrity – or that of your party, candidate or campaign.
