Dear [REDACTED]

Our Ref: FOI 10/17

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 dated 11 February 2017 received by the Commission on 13 February 2017.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is in bold below followed by our response.

You have requested:

I hereby instigate a formal Freedom of Information inquiry to know which parties have been deregistered for not submitting a notification of renewal in 2017 and 2016

Our response is as follows:

We have the information you have requested.

Pursuant to the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 ('PPERA'), in order to remain registered, each year registered political parties and registered minor political parties are required to deliver to the Commission by the relevant deadline a notification confirming that their registered details are correct.

In the case of a registered political party that deadline falls 6 months after the party's statement of accounts are required to be delivered to the Commission. In the case of a registered minor political party that deadline falls 6 months after the anniversary of the party's inclusion in the register.

Where a party fails to deliver that notification, the Commission is required by PERA to remove the party's entry from the register of political parties.

Where a party has been deregistered because they failed to deliver that notification, their registration summary available on the Commission's website is marked that they have been deregistered and specifically that they have been statutorily deregistered.

Accordingly, the information you have requested is publically available on the Commission's website, however, we have collated that information for you. Annex 1 to this letter sets out the names of political parties or minor political parties that have been deregistered from 1 January 2016 to 13 February 2017 because they did not deliver the abovementioned notice required by PERA.

I trust that this information satisfies your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-requests/how-do-i-make-an-foi-request>

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: <http://www.ico.gov.uk>

Yours sincerely

Information Officer
