Dear Sir/Madam,

Cornwall Electoral Review

I write to advise you that at a meeting of the Council held on 17th April, 2008 it was resolved to support a Unitary Council size of significantly more than 130 elected Members, thereby having parity with Welsh Unitary authorities. The minimum which the Council would find acceptable would be 130 seats, primarily with single Member Wards, but in cases to be considered on their own merits some Wards with more than one Member.

Yours faithfully,

Nigel Richards
