Glossary

Regulated period

In the run-up to some elections, there is a set 'regulated period'. During this period, campaign spending limits and rules apply.

For the 2011 devolved elections, the regulated period ran from 6 January 2011 to polling day on 5 May.

Campaign spending

A party's spending on certain activities to promote itself, or criticise other parties, during the regulated period.

Campaign broadcasts

Spending on party political broadcasts, including agency fees, design and any other associated costs.

Advertising

Advertising of any kind, such as banners, websites or Youtube videos.

Unsolicited material to electors

Spending on producing and sending letters or leaflets to voters which aren't in response to specific queries.

Manifesto or policy documents

Spending on producing and disseminating any documents setting out party policies.

Market research/canvassing

Any research undertaken to gather information on voter's views or intentions.

Media

Spending on press conferences or any dealings with the media.

Transport

Transport costs in connection with the party's campaign.

Rallies or other events

Spending on party rallies or events, including the costs of people's attendance and any goods or services provided.

Overheads and general administration

General day-to-day administrative costs, such as phone bills or equipment hire.
