

Paul Kingsley

From: William Morrison
Sent: 18 April 2008 09:17
To: Paul Kingsley
Subject: FW: Local government in Cornwall border review
Attachments: Boundary Review_4a_080416.doc

From: Hocking George CC [mailto:ghocking@cornwall.gov.uk]
Posted At: 17 April 2008 18:40
Posted To: Reviews@
Conversation: Local government in Cornwall border review
Subject: Local government in Cornwall border review

From Dobwalls and district parish councillors

We are very much a rural part of the county and want to remain so. We do not want to be part of Liskeard.

Dobwalls: 1,6221

St Pinnock: 567

St Keyne: 408

Morval: 570

St Martins: 284

Duloe: 558

St Neot: 799

Warleggan: 188

TOTAL: 4,995

This is all rural area and quite easy to manage for one member. If it has to be a bigger number, there are another couple of parishes which could easily work in with this area.

Working in the rural area with schools, parish hall committees, youth clubs, WIs and welcome committee groups, you build up a community of communication which you don't get in big town organisations.

I enclose a few suggestions of how the Cornwall Unitary Authority could work.

Councillor George Hocking, a councillor for more than 20 years

Please note that the Council may need to disclose this e-mail under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 or the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

Important: This e-mail and its attachments are intended for the above-named only and may be confidential. If they have come to you in error you must take no action based on them, nor must you copy or show them to anyone; please e-mail us immediately at enquiries@cornwall.gov.uk