Dear Sirs

Electoral Review for the new Cornwall Unitary Authority

At a Special Meeting of Helston Town Council held on Tuesday 8th April 2008 the Council's unanimous view was that:

- The town of Helston wished to be autonomous;
- Helston's preference is to have three single-Member Wards, or
- as a second choice, to have two single-Member Wards.

Members are of the opinion that the current Cornwall County Council Divisions do not serve Helston well with part of the town joined with Porthleven, Helston North including Trewennack and Helston South included with Mawgan in Meneage. Helston deserves its own Councillors that live in the town and should not include the surrounding rural parishes.

Currently, two of the three serving County Councillors live outside of the town – one in Porthleven and the other in Manaccan. The Town Council believes that Helston should have dedicated Councillors that would bring the Unitary Authority closer to where people live.

Thank you for giving Helston Town Council the opportunity to have an input into the Electoral Review.

Yours faithfully

Mr C Dawson
Town Clerk
