

Report of an impermissible donation returned by a regulated donee

Explanatory notes on completing form RD1B

Each note corresponds to a numbered section on form RD1B.

1 Details of regulated donee

Please insert the full name and address of the regulated donee submitting the report. If appropriate, please specify the office to which the regulated donee has been elected.

Please note that this address will be made public on the register of donations to regulated donees. It is therefore recommended that individual regulated donees use their office addresses rather than their personal addresses.

2 Declaration

This declaration must be made and signed by the regulated donee submitting the report. Where the regulated donee is a members association, the declaration must be signed by the association's treasurer, or otherwise by the person responsible for managing donations made to the association.

3 Name and address of donor

If the donation was received from an identifiable donor, please insert the name and address of the individual or organisation which made the donation.

If the donation was from an unidentifiable donor, please tick the box to indicate this.

4 Date of donation

Please insert details of the date on which the donation was received.

5 Cash donation amount

If the donation was in cash, please specify the amount of the donation.

6 Non-cash donation

If the donation was not made in cash, please specify the value of the donation, and the nature of the donation (e.g., £1,300; laptop computer).

7 Manner in which unidentifiable donation was made

Please give details of the way in which the donation was made (e.g., cash donation through the post).

8 Return of donation to a known donor

If the donation was received from an impermissible donor, please give details of the date on which the donation was returned, and the person or organisation to whom the donation was returned.

9 Action taken in the case of a donation from an unidentifiable donor

If the donation was received from an unidentifiable donor, please give the date on which the donation was returned, and indicate whether the donation was returned to the person who transferred the donation, a relevant financial institution, or surrendered to the Commission. Please give the name and address of the person or organisation to whom the donation was returned.

10 Donation surrendered to The Electoral Commission

Please indicate whether a cheque for the value of the donation has been attached with the return.

The completed RD1B form should be returned to:
