

European Parliamentary Elections (GB only)

Explanatory note: Return as to personal expenses – Party list candidate

Candidates on regional party lists at the European Parliamentary elections in Great Britain are required to submit a return detailing any personal expenses they have incurred on account of, or incidental to the election. The return must be submitted to the Regional Returning Officer within 50 days of the election result being declared. If you have not incurred any personal expenses, you must still submit a 'nil' return stating this. This return should not include any campaign expenditure that must be reported to the Electoral Commission by the party. Please read the following explanatory note before completing the return.

Section 1: Details of candidate

You must include the region in which you stood, your name, and the name of your party in the spaces provided.

Section 2: Personal expenses incurred

You must include the total amount of personal expenses you incurred in the space provided. Personal expenses are any reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the election on your accommodation and subsistence and travel in your own car or another person's personal car if provided to you free of charge. Please note there is no limit on the amount of personal expenses a candidate may incur.

Section 3: Candidate signature

You must sign and date the return in the spaces provided.

Section 4: Details of personal expenses incurred

You must provide details of each item of personal expenses you incurred in the table provided. Please note that you do not need to provide receipts or invoices for any items of expenditure.
