1 Storage and disposal of documents

1.1 The election documentation listed in paragraphs 1.8, 1.9 and 1.11 below must be kept securely for one year.

1.2 The election documents must be forwarded to the relevant registration officer. The relevant registration officer is:¹

For the National Assembly for Wales election²

- the registration officer of the local authority in whose area the constituency is situated, or
- if the constituency comprises any part of the area of more than one local authority, the registration officer of the local authority in whose area the greater or greatest (as the case may be) number of electors is registered

For the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) election³

- the registration officer of the local authority which comprises the voting area, or
- if the voting area comprises any part of the area of more than one local authority, the registration officer of the local authority in whose area the greater or greatest (as the case may be) number of electors is registered

1.3 If you are not the relevant registration officer, you should liaise with them at an early stage to put in place arrangements for the forwarding of the prescribed documents after the declarations of results. You should ensure that all of the documentation is kept secure and accounted for during the process of being forwarded to the relevant registration officer.

1.4 In any case, you should maintain a clear audit trail when packaging and forwarding the documents as this will help to ensure that retrieval of documents is facilitated should anyone wish to inspect the public documents. The packaging and labelling system you use should both provide secure storage and support timely retrieval.

1.5 A clear audit trail and transparent process can be achieved by:

- Producing clear labels for each packet.⁴ You must seal all of the relevant documentation in separate packets and mark each packet with a description of its contents, the date of the election and the elections to which it relates. In respect of the Assembly election, the label must also include the name of the Assembly constituency, if the packet relates to the regional election, the name of the region. In respect of the PCC election, the label must also include the name of the police area.

In addition, the labels should state how long the packet is to be kept and when it is to be destroyed (unless otherwise directed by a court order). The labels for documents open to public inspection and for documents that are not open to public inspection should be different. As a minimum, the packets containing documents not open to public inspection should clearly state this fact.

- Ensuring that you have factored the parcelling up of documents into your verification and count planning.
- Covering packing instructions as part of your training for polling station staff and when training postal voting and count supervisors. Providing written instructions should also help to reduce the risk of documents being packaged wrongly. A template graphical guide to packaging materials at the close of poll is available, which you could adapt and provide to polling station staff.
- Creating a list of all documents to be forwarded. You should keep a record of all of the materials that you have a duty to send to the relevant registration officer, and ensure that all of the items are accounted for. Paragraphs 1.8, 1.9 and 1.11 below provide lists of documents that you have a duty to retain. You should also:
 - record the number of parcels you have despatched
 - record the details of the relevant registration officer to whom they have been sent
 - obtain a receipt from the relevant registration officer indicating that the parcels have been safely received

1.6 All packets and receptacles containing election documents should be stored securely before being transferred to the relevant registration officer so that no unauthorised persons can tamper with them.

The documents that you have a duty to forward

1.7 You must seal up the election documents listed below and, on the completion of the counting of ballot papers, you must forward them to the relevant registration officer.

1.8 From the polling stations:

- the packet containing:⁵
 - list of tendered votes
 - list of voters with disabilities assisted by companions
 - declarations made by companions of voters with disabilities
 - list of votes marked by the Presiding Officer
 - statements relating to votes marked by the Presiding Officer

- list of persons to whom ballot papers are delivered after the correction of a clerical error or as a result of a decision on a court appeal
- the marked copies of the register of electors, the marked list of proxies and any marked copy notices issued as a result of the correction of a clerical error or a decision on a court appeal
- the packets containing the completed polling station corresponding number lists
- certificates of employment on duty on polling day

1.9 From the postal vote issues and openings:⁶

- the marked copies of the postal voters' list and proxy postal voters' list
- the packets containing the completed postal vote corresponding number lists
- the packets of postal voting statements accepted as valid
- the packets of rejected postal votes
- the packets of rejected postal ballot paper envelopes
- the lists of cancelled, lost and spoilt postal ballot papers
- the packet of spoilt postal ballot papers and accompanying documents
- the packet of lost postal ballot papers containing any part of the postal ballot pack that was not lost and which was returned to you before you issued a replacement
- the packet of postal ballot papers, statements and envelopes that have been cancelled
- the packets of unused postal ballot papers
- the unopened postal ballot packs received after the close of poll or returned as undelivered (these can be forwarded at a subsequent date)

1.10 You must also forward to the relevant registration officer, at the same time as you are forwarding the above election documents, the statement as to postal ballot papers and the relevant parts of the list of postal votes that have failed the identifier checks.⁷ Where the constituency / voting area includes more than one local authority, you must send such extracts of the list as are relevant to the Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) for each of those local authorities. You should also forward at the same time your record of any instances where you suspect an offence may have been committed, so that the ERO knows in which cases they should not send out a postal vote identifier rejection notice.

For further information on the contents of the various lists relating to postal voting, see Part D: Absent voting.

1.11 From the counts, and separately for each of the Assembly constituency election, Assembly regional election and PCC election:⁸

- all ballot papers separately stored as:
 - counted ballot papers
 - rejected ballot papers
 - unused ballot papers (both ordinary and tendered) and spoilt ballot papers (placed together)
 - used tendered ballot papers

- ballot paper accounts, the result of the verification of the ballot paper accounts and the statement of rejected ballot papers

1.12 Retention and inspection guidance for Assembly elections and PCC elections to assist with the correct handling of the materials is available for download from our website.

2 Post-election activity

Providing notice of the results

2.1 For the Assembly constituency election, you must give public notice of the name of the candidate elected, the total number of votes given to each candidate and the number of rejected ballot papers under each heading. You should also include the description (if any) of each candidate. If a candidate has used their commonly used name to stand in the election, you should use both their full name and the commonly used name on the notice.

2.2 After submitting the regional totals for your constituency to the RRO you should also give public notice of these totals.

2.3 If you are also the RRO, for the Assembly regional election you must give public notice of:⁹

- the name of each individual regional candidate elected
- the name of each political party and party list candidate elected
- by constituency, the number of votes for each individual regional candidate and party, together with the number of rejected ballot papers under each head

2.4 If a candidate has used their commonly used name to stand in the election, you should use both their full name and the commonly used name on the notice.

2.5 You should ensure that you provide a copy of the regional notice of result to CROs for them to publish locally.

2.6 At the PCC election, after transmitting the local totals from the first and second counts to the PARO, and once the PARO has authorised you to do so, you must give public notice of the following:

- On conclusion of the first count, the contents of the statement of first preference votes for each candidate and the statement of rejected votes.
- On conclusion of the second count, the contents of the statement of second preference votes for each remaining candidate and the statement of rejected votes.

Further details on drawing up the statements of first and second preference votes can be found in chapter 6 of Part E – Verifying and counting the votes.

2.7 At the PCC election, it is the PARO who produces the notice of result. The PARO must send a copy of the notice to LROs. As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the notice you must give public notice of it within your voting area.¹⁰

2.8 In all cases, you should ensure that the notices are made available to all those interested as soon as possible, including by publishing them on your local authority's website.

To be able to achieve the outcome set out in performance standard 1, you will need to ensure that the results are communicated to voters in a clear and timely way.

To demonstrate that the outcomes can be delivered you will need to have in place arrangements for communicating results to voters.

Delivery of certificates to the Clerk of the National Assembly for Wales

2.9 After the declaration of the Assembly constituency election result, you must complete the prescribed certificate of election (form 'CR') in English or Welsh. The certificate must state:¹¹

- the full name of the successful candidate
- in the case of a successful party candidate, the name of the political party
- the address of the successful candidate

2.10 If you are also the RRO, after the declaration of the Assembly regional election result, you must complete the prescribed certificate of election (form 'CS') in English or Welsh. It must state:¹²

- the full name of each successful candidate
- in the case of successful party list candidates, the name of the political party
- the address of each successful candidate

2.11 In each case, a copy of the relevant certificate should be sent to the Clerk of the National Assembly for Wales as soon as possible, keeping in mind that the taking of the oath of allegiance or the corresponding affirmation may commence as early as 8am on the day following the declaration of results.

2.12 The Assembly Clerk has requested that you send a signed copy of the completed certificate as a scanned image attached to an email immediately after the declaration of the result to:

Certificates@Assembly.Wales or Tystysgrifau@Cynulliad.Cymru

2.13 Fax numbers have been provided as back up:

Fax: 0300 200 6108 or 0300 200 7388

2.14 If you experience any problems in sending the copies of the certificates to the Assembly, or have any questions about this process, please contact:

Andrew Minnis
Tel: 0300 200 6314

2.15 As soon as practicable, you must also deliver, or cause to be delivered, the original completed certificate of the constituency or regional election (as appropriate) to:¹³

The Chief Executive and Clerk
National Assembly for Wales
Cardiff Bay
Cardiff
CF99 1NA

Deposits¹⁴

Assembly election

2.16 The £500 deposit made by or on behalf of a candidate in an Assembly constituency election must be returned if the candidate polled more than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast in the constituency. If the candidate polled equal to or less than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast, the deposit must not be returned.

2.17 If the candidate in the Assembly constituency election polled more than 5% of the valid votes cast, you must return the deposit to the person who made it no later than the next working day after the result of the election is declared.

2.18 The £500 deposit made by or on behalf of an individual regional candidate or a registered political party in an Assembly regional election must be returned if the individual candidate or party polled more than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast in the region. If the individual candidate or party polled equal to or less than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast, the deposit must not be returned.

2.19 If an individual candidate in the Assembly regional election polled more than 5% of the valid votes cast, the RRO must return the deposit to the person who made it no later than the next working day after the result of the election is declared. If a party list polled more than 5% of the valid votes cast, the RRO must return the deposit to the registered Nominating Officer of the party no later than the next working day after the result of the election is declared.

2.20 In all cases, if you are returning a deposit by cheque, it is treated as being returned on the day on which the cheque is posted.

Forfeited deposits

2.21 If a candidate in an Assembly constituency election or an individual candidate or party in an Assembly regional election does not poll more than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast, their deposit will be forfeited to the Secretary of State. Details of this process will be included in the Fees and Charges guidance for the election, which will be provided by the Welsh Government.

PCC election

2.22 The PARO is responsible for managing the return and forfeiture of deposits at the PCC election.

Guidance for PAROs on managing the return and forfeiture of deposits can be found in chapter 8 of the PARO guidance: delivery of key processes.

Statements as to postal ballot papers

2.23 You must complete a statement as to postal ballot papers for the Assembly elections and the PCC election in your constituency and voting area.¹⁵ Even where the issue of postal votes has been combined, you are still required to produce a statement of postal ballots for each of the elections.

2.24 These documents are vital for the accounting of postal votes and for ensuring that voters have confidence that their vote will be counted in the way they intended. The statements should form part of the arrangements that you have in place to maintain a clear audit trail of the postal voting and count processes. You should complete the statements accurately using the figures recorded at the issue, receipt, opening and verification of postal votes.

Further details on record-keeping throughout the administration of the postal voting process are provided in Part D – Absent voting.

2.25 The Commission has produced a template statement as to postal ballot papers for the Assembly elections and the PCC election, which should be used. The accompanying guidance notes should support you in completing these.

2.26 You must provide a copy of the statement for the Assembly elections, in English or Welsh, to the Secretary of State for Wales and to the Commission. You must also provide a copy of the statement for the PCC election to the Secretary of State and to the Commission. Details of how to provide copies to the Commission will be provided through a Bulletin.¹⁶

2.27 The statements must not be provided before 19 May 2016 and must arrive no later than 26 May 2016.¹⁷

Data collection and feedback

2.28 You will also be requested to send information and data to the Commission relating to the elections.

2.29 Forms for collecting information and data, and accompanying guidance notes for completion, as well as a feedback form, will be circulated separately and will also be available on the Commission's website.

Accounting for the elections

2.30 Elections to the National Assembly for Wales are funded by the Welsh Government and guidance and instructions for accounting for the election will be provided by them. If you need to contact the Welsh Government, you can speak to frank.cuthbert@wales.gsi.gov.uk.

2.31 PCC elections are funded by the UK Government and claims for fees and charges for the election are administered through the Elections Claims Unit, which is part of the Cabinet Office. Detailed guidance and instructions for accounting for the election, including how to apportion costs where polls are combined, will be provided by the Cabinet Office. Contact details for the Elections Claims Unit are as follows:

Email: returning.officers@cabinetoffice.gov.uk

Electoral Claims Unit, Cabinet Office
Ground Floor Roseberry Court
St Andrews Business Park
Central Avenue
Norwich
NR7 0HS

Payment of creditors

2.32 You should keep receipts before and throughout the period of the elections for all services/work provided, and pay all creditors as soon as possible after the elections.

Payment of fees to staff

Income tax

2.33 Changes to income tax arrangements include cessation of the current non-liability to tax declaration (P527) to be replaced by a standard starter checklist which is issued at the time of appointment, and needs only be done once rather than be reviewed every year as with the P527. The P528 form, currently issued in lieu of a P60 will also no longer be used, but you will need to issue a P60 form to the employee at the end of the tax year.

HMRC real-time information

2.34 All election payments made in the tax year beginning in April 2016 will be subject to HMRC's real-time information tax payment system. You should ensure that you liaise with your local authority's finance and HR departments to ensure that you can comply with the tax rules for all your employees, including any temporary and short-term contract staff. Further guidance is available from HMRC.

Automatic enrolment into a workplace pension

2.35 All employers with staff working in the UK must comply with automatic enrolment requirements. Further guidance is available from the Pensions Regulator.

Return of equipment

2.36 You should make arrangements to return any equipment, such as the empty ballot boxes, to storage.

Candidates' and parties' election spending

Assembly election

2.37 There are legal maximum limits on candidates' and parties' spending at the National Assembly for Wales elections. Candidates standing in a constituency or individual regional list candidates account for their own spending and donations, whereas the party accounts for spending to promote regional party list candidates and the party generally.

2.38 The Commission is required by law to monitor the compliance of candidates with rules on spending and donations, and regulates spending and fundraising by parties.

2.39 We have produced guidance for candidates and agents on election spending and the required returns; in addition, candidates and agents can also download the return of candidate election spending form with integrated explanatory notes, the declaration by the election agent as to election spending and the declaration by the candidate as to their election spending. These documents can all be downloaded from our website.

Further details about the spending limits for candidates can be found in Part 3 of our guidance for candidates and agents. We have also produced guidance for political parties which contains further information on spending limits for parties.

2.40 Election agents for Assembly constituency candidates must deliver a candidate's spending return to you, together with relevant invoices and receipts, within 35 calendar days of the declaration of result of the election, i.e. by Thursday 9 June if the result is declared on Thursday 5 May, or by Friday 10 June if the result is declared on Friday 6 May.¹⁸

2.41 Election agents for individual candidates at the Assembly regional election must deliver a candidate's spending return to the RRO, together with relevant invoices and receipts, within 35 calendar days of the declaration of result of the election, i.e. by Thursday 9 June if the result is declared on Thursday 5 May, or by Friday 10 June if the result is declared on Friday 6 May.¹⁹

2.42 Election agents and candidates at the Assembly elections must deliver declarations vouching for the candidate's election spending return as follows:

- Constituency candidates and election agents must deliver their declarations to the CRO²⁰
- Individual regional candidates and their election agents must deliver their declarations to the RRO²¹

2.43 In all cases, the election agent's declaration must be delivered at the same time as the return. All candidates' declarations must be delivered within 7 working days of the election agent submitting the return. However, if the candidate is out of the UK when the return is delivered to you, they may make the declaration within 14 days after returning to the UK and deliver it to you as soon as possible.²²

2.44 Within 7 working days of the party submitting their spending return to the Commission, candidates on a regional party list must submit a declaration to the RRO stating that the return is correct to the best of their knowledge.

2.45 For parties that spend £250,000 or under, the party return is due on 5 August, and for parties that spend over £250,000, the party return is due on 5 November. In both cases, the return is submitted directly to the Commission.

2.46 The CRO and RRO must send copies of election spending returns and declarations to the Commission as soon as reasonably practicable after the return or declaration is received.²³

2.47 Copies of spending returns and declarations should be emailed to candidates@electoralcommission.org.uk. Alternatively, you can post these to:

Party and Election Finance
The Electoral Commission
Wales Office

Companies House
Crown Way
Cardiff
CF14 3UZ

2.48 Please also supply the following information to enable us to carry out our compliance duties:

- electorate figures for each constituency used to calculate the candidates' spending limit
- the candidates' spending limit provided to candidates, if applicable
- a list of all candidates who stood for election, including their party and description (if any) and whether they were elected
- confirmation of who has not delivered a return or declaration, has delivered an incomplete return, or has delivered a late return or declaration and what, if anything, you have already done about such cases
- addresses of election agents for any candidates who failed to deliver returns
- addresses of any candidates on a regional party list who have not completed their declaration

2.49 You must retain a copy of each election spending return and declaration, and any accompanying documents, for a period of two years beginning with the date when the return is delivered and, during that period, make copies available for public inspection on payment of a fee of £1.50. Anyone can also request copies of the returns or declarations and any accompanying documents, which must be supplied on payment of the fee of 15p per page. The addresses of individuals who have made donations to candidates must be removed from all inspection copies and copies supplied on request. At the end of the two-year period if the candidate or the relevant election agent requests them, they must be returned to the candidate. Otherwise the returns, declaration and accompanying documents may be destroyed.²⁴

Spending returns from non-party campaigners

2.50 Under Article 46 of the National Assembly for Wales (Representation of the People) Order 2007, individuals and organisations (known as 'local non-party campaigners' may incur spending of up to £500 campaigning for or against one or more candidates in a particular constituency or, £1,000 in a region, without the authorisation of the election agent.

2.51 The election agent for the relevant constituency or individual regional candidate that the campaigning benefits must authorise, in writing, any spending above these amounts. Where a local non-party campaigner spends above these thresholds, they must submit a return to you declaring the amount of election expenses the candidate's agent has authorised them to spend, along with a copy of the written authorisation the election agent has given. This return must be submitted within 21 calendar days of the declaration of the result.

Guidance for non-party campaigners can be found on the Commission's website.

PCC election

2.52 The PARO is responsible for dealing with candidate spending returns.

Guidance for PAROs on their post-election responsibilities can be found in chapter 8 of the PARO guidance: delivery of key processes.

3 Challenges to the election results

3.1 Election petitions can be used to challenge the result of elections.

Who can bring an election petition at an Assembly election and on what grounds?

3.2 An election petition for an Assembly election can be presented by:

- a person claiming to have been a candidate at the election, or
- a person claiming to have had a right to be elected or returned at the election, or
- a person who voted as an elector at the election or who had a right to vote at the election, except for an elector registered anonymously²⁵

3.3 The allowable grounds for a petition are that there has been an:

- undue election, or
- undue return²⁶

Who can bring an election petition at a PCC election and on what grounds?

3.4 An election petition for a PCC election can be presented by:

- a person claiming to have been a candidate at the election, or
- four or more persons who voted at the election or who had a right to vote at the election, except for electors registered anonymously²⁷

3.5 The allowable grounds for a petition are that:

- the person whose election is questioned was not duly elected
- the person whose election is questioned was disqualified at the time of the election
- the election was avoided by corrupt or illegal practices or on the grounds specified in Sections 164 and 165 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (as amended)

Who is made a respondent?

3.6 The person whose election is questioned will most probably be made a respondent to the petition. If the petition relates to the conduct of the election, the relevant Returning Officer(s), (whether CRO, RRO, LRO or PARO), may also be a respondent to the petition.²⁸

Deadlines for bringing petitions

3.7 A petition at an Assembly election must normally be presented within 21 calendar days of the name of the elected candidate being returned to the Clerk.²⁹ A petition at a PCC election must normally be presented within 21 calendar days after the day on which the election was held. Further time may be allowed in certain circumstances.³⁰

3.8 Any person who is considering presenting an election petition should be advised to take their own legal advice. For any questions relating to election petitions and the process for submitting petitions, including confirmation of the deadlines, you should contact the Elections Petitions Office:

The Election Petitions Office
Room E113
Royal Courts of Justice
Strand
London WC2A 2LL

Email: Election_Petitions@hmcts.gsi.gov.uk
Phone: 020 7947 6877

Judicial determination of disqualification

3.9 Any person may apply to the High Court for a declaration that an Assembly Member or a Police and Crime Commissioner is, or at any time since being elected has been, disqualified from being an Assembly Member or Police and Crime Commissioner (as appropriate).

3.10 Any person who is considering applying for a judicial declaration of disqualification should be advised to take their own legal advice.

4 Review of election procedures

4.1 You should carry out a thorough evaluation of all processes outlined in your project plan, seeking feedback from appropriate stakeholders, and produce a lessons learnt document which will be used to inform the project plan and risk register for future electoral events.

4.2 The Commission has provided, as part of the template project plan, some sample objectives and suggested tools that will allow you to measure the extent to which the conduct of the elections has been successful. The Commission also provides an evaluation plan as part of the template project plan to assist you with the review process.

To be able to achieve the outcome set out in performance standard 1, you will need to evaluate planning for and delivery of previous polls and identify lessons learnt, updating plans as required.

To demonstrate that the outcomes can be delivered you will need to have in place planning documentation reflecting lessons learnt.

The review

4.3 The scope of the review should cover all aspects of the elections. Your project plan should be used as the starting point for the review, and each process that was planned for and carried out should be reviewed.

4.4 A key part of the review will be the consideration of the aims and objectives set out in your project plan and measuring your performance against these.

4.5 You should pay particular attention to reviewing:

- your project planning
- whether you were able to secure adequate resources
- if your constituency or voting area crosses a local authority boundary, what worked well and what could be improved when working with elections staff from the other local authority/authorities
- if you are not also the ERO for some or all of your constituency or voting area, what worked well and what could be improved when working with them
- if you are not also the RRO and/or PARO, what worked well and what could be improved when working with them
- how contractors have been managed and whether they delivered work to the required specification
- the equipment and stationery used

- recruitment and training of staff
- the suitability of venues used
- the management of nominations, polling stations, the absent voting process, and the verification and counts
- the processing and handling of queries
- any issues affecting the security/integrity of the elections

4.6 As part of the review you should seek feedback from appropriate stakeholders.

4.7 You should seek feedback from the following:

- your staff and, if your constituency or voting area crosses a local authority boundary, elections staff from the other local authority/authorities
- if you are not also the RRO, the RRO and their staff
- if you are not also the PARO, the PARO and their staff
- electors
- candidates, agents and political parties
- local organisations of disabled people, older people and minority ethnic groups, and the council's access officers

4.8 To obtain feedback from your staff, for example, you should consider inviting a number of them, including polling station staff, to a discussion in order to address all aspects of the polling station process, from training and briefing sessions through to dealing with difficult situations on polling day. You could also take into account any feedback provided in reports returned by Presiding Officers and polling station inspectors.

4.9 Once you have reviewed all aspects of the election and sought feedback from appropriate stakeholders you should produce a lessons learnt document. The lessons learnt document should include an analysis of what practices were successful and where these could be used elsewhere, what you would do again or do differently, and key recommendations. The lessons learnt report should then be used to inform the project plan and risk register for future electoral events.

5 Freedom of Information requests

5.1 Following the elections you may receive requests under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. CROs, RROs, LROs, PAROs and EROs are not a public authority under this Act and, as such, are exempt from the disclosure requirements imposed by it.

5.2 However, where possible, CROs, RROs, LROs, PAROs and EROs should disclose the requested information, provided this information is already in the public domain, or the information requested does not include personal data. An example of non-personal data would be statistical data providing the total number of electors registered in your area or the turnout of postal voters.
