Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI 181/17

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 19 November 2017, received by the Commission on 20 November 2017.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and we regret that in this instance we have not responded within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is in bold below followed by our response.

1) I would like to request all internal and external correspondence and communications between the Electoral Commission and Voter Consultancy Limited.

2) I would like to request all internal and external correspondence and communications between the Electoral Commission and Thomas Borwick.

I define correspondence and communications as including (but not limited to) the following:

Emails

Letters

Memos

Briefings

Research documents

Press clippings

Invitations

Presentation slides

Notes taken during telephone conversations

3). Please provide a timeline and any relevant details of Voter Consultancy Ltd's regulation by the Electoral Commission; eg when did Voter Consultancy Ltd apply to be regulated by the Electoral Commission? When was it given third party status? What is Voter Consultancy Ltd's current status? If it no longer has third party status, when did this end?

Our response is as follows:

We hold the information you have requested.

Questions one and two
You requested internal and external correspondence and communications between the Electoral Commission, and Thomas Borwick and Voter Consultancy Limited respectively. We define internal correspondence as correspondence between members of the Commission. As such, there is no internal correspondence between the Commission and those external bodies, as by its nature that correspondence is external correspondence.

Attached are the documents that we hold to the date of your request that are correspondence between the Electoral Commission and Thomas Borwick or Voter Consultancy Limited.

Please note that some of the documents which fall within the scope of your request have been released under a previous, similar FOI request. As such, we have not included these documents under your request. Instead, you can view these previously-released documents at https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/__data/assets/pdf_file/0004/238324/FOI-120-17-and-attachments.pdf.

Exemption under section 40
You will notice that certain personal details have been redacted from the documents we are releasing. This redaction is necessary because section 40(2) and (3)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI) Act provides that personal data, where its disclosure would breach one of the data protection principles, is exempt from disclosure. The first data protection principle states that personal data must be processed fairly and lawfully.

The Commission considers that it would be unfair to release the names and personal contact details of junior officials, who were not employed in public facing roles and did not act as spokespersons for their employer, as those individuals would have a reasonable expectation that this personal data would not be disclosed to the general public. Other personal data has been withheld as it relates to sensitive personal data of individuals.

Some information has also been redacted as it falls outside the scope of your request.

Question three
Voter Consultancy Ltd has been registered as a third party with the Commission on two separate occasions.

- Registered on 13 September 2013, and lapsed on 13 December 2015. Thomas Borwick was the responsible person and secretary for Voter Consultancy Ltd. You can view the Voter Consultancy Ltd's previous registration entry here.

- Registered on 11 January 2016, and lapsed on 20 July 2017. Thomas Borwick was the responsible person for Voter Consultancy, and Christopher Matthew Ball was secretary. You can view Voter Consultancy Ltd's previous registration entry here.

Voter Consultancy Ltd is not currently registered as a third party with the Commission.

I trust that this information satisfies your request. The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority, but in some circumstances we cannot responsibly release requested information, and we ask for your understanding in this regard.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-requests/how-do-I-make-an-foi-request

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Electoral observer accreditation

Dear Mr Borwick

Thank you for your application for accreditation as an electoral observer.

I just wanted to make sure that you are aware of the requirement to remain politically impartial throughout your accreditation period as an observer. The accreditation period lasts from the point of your accreditation until 31 December in the year of application.

The code of practice states observers must maintain strict political impartiality at all times during the period of their accreditation, including during their leisure time. They must not express or exhibit any bias or preference in relation to national authorities, political parties, candidates or referendum issues.

Observers must also not conduct any activity that could be reasonably perceived as favouring or providing partisan gain for any political competitor in the United Kingdom, such as wearing or displaying any partisan symbols, colours, banners or accepting anything of value from political competitors.

As part of the application process, you are required to sign a declaration indicating you have read and understood the Commission's code of conduct for individual electoral observers and agree to abide by it.

If you consider that you will be able to meet the requirement, please let me know by replying to this email and we will consider your application further.

Yours sincerely

Dear [redacted],

Thank you very much for your email, I am most grateful for your quick and helpful response.

I can confirm that I, Thomas Borwick, am the sole Director of Voter Consultancy Ltd and the sole relevant participator.

Although we do not have an official company secretary, Christopher Matthew Ball (known by Matthew), our Project Manager currently acts in a similar capacity and has been in touch over the phone regarding this issue. Please see the attached declaration paged signed by him in this role.

Please let me know if this does not suffice.

Dear Mr Borwick,

Thanks for your application to re-register Voter Consultancy Ltd with us as a non-party campaigner. In order to process your application, we require some additional information.

Organisations applying to register as non-party campaigners must provide the names of the people that make up their governing bodies or committees. In law these people are called 'relevant participators'.

As you have applied to register as a Company, you must provide us with the names of Voter Consultancy Ltd's company directors. We have a form available on our website for this purpose (please see the link below), or alternatively we are happy to accept a list of the names by email. http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/__data/assets/pdf_file/0003/166305/form-tp1-continuation.pdf

Secondly, an application to register with us as a company must be authorised by the named company secretary. If you do not have a named company secretary, someone acting in a similar capacity with overall responsibility for the administrative affairs of the organisation may sign the application.

I note that you have signed the form as a director of the company. I would be grateful if you could confirm by return email whether;

1. You are the named company secretary or;

2. Voter Consultancy does not have a named company secretary, and you overall responsibility for the administrative affairs of the company and is signing in a similar capacity to that of a company secretary

Should another individual be the company secretary, they must provide their authorisation for the application to register by signing the attached declaration page and returning it to us.

With regards to your enquiry about reference numbers, our online system generates a unique identifier for each new registration. As your application to re-register Voter Consultancy Ltd is in effect a new application, your new reference number will be different to the one for the previous registration.

I hope this is helpful. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the party and election finance advice line on 0333 103 1928 or e-mail the party and election finance inbox at pef@electoralcommission.org.uk.

Subject: Voter Consultancy - Third Party Status Renewal
Importance: High

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to please request that my organisation, Voter Consultancy Ltd., have it's status as a Registered Third Party with the Electoral Commission be renewed.

Unfortunately due to a colleague oversight we failed to renew our status before it had lapsed in December, this is despite a member of your team, [redacted] kindly notifying us back in October.

My colleague Matthew Ball spoke to one of your Guidance Assistants over the phone and they helpfully directed us to the TP1 form necessary for our status to be renewed after having already lapsed. I attach a photocopy of the completed and signed document.

It would also be preferable if our registration number TP2153 remain the same though I understand if this is not possible.

I would be most grateful if you could inform us of receipt of this email and if the document is in order. Additionally, can you please notify us when the application process is complete.

Thanks again for your comprehensive help and assistance over the matter, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards,

Thomas Borwick.

Dear Thomas Borwick

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission.

Unfortunately your query does not appear to fall within the remit of the Electoral Commission.

The Commission is an independent body set up by UK Parliament. We regulate party and election finance and set standards for well-run statutory elections only. As such I am unable to assist you with applying to be a scrutiniser of an industrial action ballot. You may wish to contact the Electoral Reform Services to see if they are able to assist you https://www.electoralreform.co.uk/.

Kind regards
