Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI 193/17

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 06 December 2017.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is in bold below followed by our response.

Please provide the list of Commonwealth Citizens who contested UK Parliamentary elections since 1992 UK elections. Please also provide the type of leave that they have had and the nationality at the time of contesting. Please provide the data in an Excel format.

Our response is as follows:

We do not hold the information you have requested. The Commission does not hold data on the demographic details of candidates at any poll.

I trust that this information satisfies your request. The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority. If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-requests/how-do-I-make-an-foi-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/.

Yours sincerely,
