Subject: FOI 107-21 - Response

Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI-107-21

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 23 July 2021.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is shown below followed by our response.

A table with the number of votes of every party with an MP that stood for election on Thursday 12th December 2019. I would also like spoilt ballots on the table,

Our response is as follows:

We do not hold the information you have requested.

The Commission did not collate results for the 2019 UK general election. However, data is available from the House of Commons Library. The linked spreadsheets below provides data on the number of votes for each candidate including the party they stood for. The second link also provides data on the number of rejected / spoiled ballots by constituency.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority and I trust that this information satisfies your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/.

Yours sincerely
