Date: 29 November 2018 11:52:40

Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI 172/18

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 06 November 2018.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is in bold below followed by our response.

1. What research, analysis or documentation has the Electoral Commission produced, if any, investigating the possibility of introducing 'I Voted' stickers for future elections?

Our response is as follows:

We do not hold the information you have requested.

The Electoral Commission's public awareness work and campaigns focus on encouraging people to register to vote and in some cases on how to vote in particular elections. We have not therefore investigated the possibility of introducing 'I Voted' stickers which are more focused on encouraging turnout.

I trust that this information satisfies your request. The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-requests/how-do-I-make-an-foi-request

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/

Yours sincerely,
