

Draft RO Performance standards framework

Outcome 1:
Electoral services are robust and support the delivery of well-run elections
What inputs are needed?	What activities are being undertaken?		What information is needed to understand the impact of our activities?	What difference is being made?	How can we determine the success of our work?
RO understanding and delivery of role and responsibilities – management and oversight of the delivery of elections, including the range of statutory functions of the RO, and an understanding of the strategic landscape, including any legislative changes that will impact on delivery Stakeholder engagement – establish and maintain strong relationships with key stakeholders Planning – maintain plans for the delivery of elections, scheduled and unscheduled, ensuring they are kept under review Resources – identification and allocation of budget and permanent staffing; and management of contractors and suppliers	Understanding of statutory responsibilities	Polls are delivered in accordance with legislation, guidance and directions (where issued) RO knowledge and understanding of role and responsibilities is developed and maintained, including through training Formal appointment of deputies, ensuring clear delegations in place and roles are allocated and understood	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awareness of guidance and legislation • Records of training/meetings attended • Evidence of quality assurance of the whole electoral process • Notification of appointment of deputies 	A consistent high-quality experience for electors, candidates and agents Public confidence in and satisfaction with election processes Teams delivering electoral services are supported to effectively deliver electoral processes The RO has the right skills, knowledge and influence to support the effective delivery of the polls	Events are delivered in accordance with legislation Elections delivered without legal challenge Analysis of team resilience, capability and capacity Analysis of feedback on the delivery of polls and any complaints received Performance against measures and objectives set out in your project plans
	Development and maintenance of robust delivery plans	Establish project team to support preparations for and delivery of elections Clear plans in place, with objectives and success measures Contingency planning to ensure readiness for unscheduled events Business continuity planning Risk register in place, with risks monitored and mitigations identified and implemented Recruitment of necessary staff and identification of training needs Robust arrangements in place for managing issues Appropriate funding is accessed from the local authority	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clear agendas for and records of project team meetings, to support focus on outcomes • Project planning documentation which is kept under regular review • Evaluation of previous events and identification of lessons learned • Analysis of wider context within which polls are being conducted • Succession plans which are regularly monitored • Training needs analysis and records of training • Reconciliation of project costs against available budget
	Working with contractors and suppliers	Identification of external services required Procurement of services Contract development and management of delivery	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Records of formal procurement decisions • Contracts in place with all suppliers, with mechanisms to manage and monitor performance • Contract monitoring tools and escalation mechanisms, including supplier issues logs and risk registers • Service level agreements • Details of supplier business continuity plans
	Maintaining effective relationships with key stakeholders	Engagement with key stakeholders on plans Ongoing engagement with stakeholders throughout the delivery of the polls	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minutes of meetings with stakeholders • Consultation with and feedback from local stakeholders on plans and election arrangements • Assessment of local accessibility requirements and demonstrated understanding of needs • Records of issues or concerns raised by stakeholders and resolutions implemented
	Coordination and management of the poll (by ROs with a power of direction)	Work across local authority boundaries with other ROs to develop guidance and issue directions where necessary to support consistent delivery of polls Engage with local Returning Officers on the arrangements they have in place to deliver the elections in their area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plans for communication with local ROs • Plans for coordinating and delivering public awareness activity and engaging with electors across the electoral area • Arrangements for the collation of results • Records of any guidance issued and whether and how the power to issue directions has been used • Analysis of post-election feedback

Outcome 2:

Everybody who is eligible and wants to vote is able to do so and has confidence in the voting process

What inputs are needed?	What activities are being undertaken?		What information is needed to understand the impact of our activities?	What difference is being made?	How can we determine the success of our work?
RO understanding and delivery of role and responsibilities - management and oversight of the delivery of elections, including the range of statutory functions of the RO	Providing information to ensure voters understand how they can take part	Develop and deliver a public awareness strategy, ensuring that electors are provided with the information they need to understand how they can take part Ensure all required election materials are accurate and made available as soon as practicable	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Analysis of different communication methods, to support targeting of messaging • Evidence of working with partners to deliver public awareness • Ballot paper rejection rates and postal vote rejection rates, contributing to an understanding of whether voters have been able to follow the instructions • Feedback from polling station staff and data relating to those who were unable to vote due to not having appropriate identification (at relevant polls) • (Wales only) Plans in place to ensure all information for electors is provided equally in English and Welsh, including all election materials 	Voters understand the different ways in which they can cast their vote	Evaluation of public awareness activities
Planning – maintain plans for the delivery of elections, ensuring they are kept under review and actively used to support delivery	Production of election materials	Production and publication of election notices Production and delivery of poll cards Proof-checking of election materials Production of ballot papers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accuracy of statutory notices • Information on method and timing of delivery of poll cards and postal ballot packs • Accuracy and timeliness of election materials: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Record of arrangements for any outsourcing of production and delivery of poll cards, postal votes and ballot papers ○ Record of proof checking processes ○ Examples of election materials ○ Record of data protection processes 	Voters are able to cast their vote using their preferred method	Analysis of feedback and complaints from eligible voters, staff, candidates and agents
Resources – identification and allocation of budget and temporary staffing; and management of contractors and suppliers.	Managing absent voting	Production and delivery of postal ballot packs Opening and processing returned postal votes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accuracy and timeliness of postal ballot packs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Record of arrangements for any outsourcing of production and delivery of postal ballot papers ○ Audit trail of issuing of postal votes ○ Record of checking processes ○ Accurate records of postal vote openings including audit trails of postal votes opened, verified and rejected 	Voters are able to cast their vote in secret at polling stations	Analysis of available data relating to voters who have not been able to cast their vote (for example, due to not having appropriate identification (at relevant polls))
Training – identification and delivery of training to meet the needs of both permanent and temporary staff	Managing voting in person	Identifying and booking suitable polling stations Assessing accessibility of polling stations Identifying and providing equipment to support voters with accessibility needs Ensuring appropriate staffing levels at polling stations Providing training for polling station staff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluation checklists for polling stations to demonstrate suitability for use • Polling station layout plans • Approach taken to allocating electors and staff to polling stations • Checklists of required polling station equipment • Analysis of voter needs informing decisions about equipment to be provided to support voting • Feedback from voters and local interest groups on equipment provided to support voting • Guidance/training provided to polling station staff • Records of those refused a ballot paper, by reason • Records of postal votes handed into polling stations 	Barriers to voting are minimised	No voters are prevented from casting their vote due to inaccessibility of polling station arrangements

Outcome3:

Everybody who is eligible and wants to stand for election is able to do so and has confidence in the process

What inputs are needed?	What activities are being undertaken?		What information is needed to understand the impact of our activities?	What difference is being made?	How can we determine the success of our work?
RO understanding and delivery of role and responsibilities - management and oversight of the delivery of elections, including the range of statutory functions of the RO	Providing information to support anyone wishing to stand as a candidate in understanding what they need to do	Ensuring accessibility and awareness of electoral processes Provision of information and guidance to parties, candidates and agents, including in relation to election spending rules Briefings offered to candidates & agents Gathering feedback from attendees to inform continuous improvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Records of attendance at briefings Records of enquiries received from candidates and agents Evaluation of feedback from candidates and agents on the information/briefings provided to those wanting to stand for election Analysis of process queries from candidates and agents to support provision of relevant information Number of nomination papers rejected by the RO, by reason 	Candidates are aware of the process they need to follow to stand for election	No errors on the statement of persons nominated or ballot papers
Planning - maintain plans for the delivery of elections, ensuring they are kept under review and actively used to support delivery Stakeholder engagement – establish and maintain strong relationships with key stakeholders	Administration of the nominations process	Provision of informal checks Determination of nomination papers Close of nomination processes Ensuring accurate ballot papers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Records of arrangements in place for candidates to have their nominations informally checked Timeliness and accuracy of publication of the statement of persons nominated Accuracy of the ballot paper Assessment of GDPR requirements and records of management of personal data received as part of the nominations process 	Nominations are accurately processed and everyone who is validly nominated is included on the ballot paper	Analysis of feedback and complaints from candidates, agents or parties
Training – staff understand their responsibilities in relation to the processes to be followed for candidates seeking to stand for election	Management of access to electoral processes to ensure transparency and enable scrutiny	Receipt of notifications of appointment of polling, postal voting and counting agents Provision of information relating to polling stations, postal vote opening sessions and the count (layout plan, process documents, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Record of those entitled to access election processes Information provided to attendees 	Candidates and appointed agents are aware of their entitlement to attend electoral processes and are able to carry out their scrutiny role effectively

Outcome 4:

Everyone can have confidence that the election process is well managed and in the accuracy of the results

What inputs are needed?	What activities are being undertaken?		What information is needed to understand the impact of our activities?	What difference is being made?	How can we determine the success of our work?
RO understanding and delivery of role and responsibilities - management and oversight of the delivery of elections, including the range of statutory functions of the RO	Postal vote opening	Accurate processing of returned postal votes Verification of postal vote identifiers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audit trail of receipt and opening of postal ballot packs • Arrangements for the secure storage of returned postal votes • Number of postal vote rejections, by reason • Postal vote opening venue layout information • Records of those entitled to attend 	Voters have confidence their vote will be counted in the way they intended	Elections delivered without legal challenge
Planning - maintain plans for the delivery of elections, ensuring they are kept under review and actively used to support delivery	Managing the verification and count	Development of venue layout and processes to ensure an accessible and transparent count Managing attendance at the verification and count Managing the verification and count processes Managing media liaison	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluation of previous count venues and processes • Assessment of access needs, with actions taken to address any issues • Count venue layout information • Audit trail of receipt and opening of ballot boxes • Audit trails of count processes • Number of rejected ballots for each contest, by reason • Strategy for dealing with both proactive and reactive communication with the media 	Candidates and agents have confidence in the accuracy of the result	Analysis of feedback and complaints from candidates, agents and other observers
Stakeholder engagement – establish and maintain strong relationships and manage communications with key stakeholders	Managing the declaration of results	Declarations are accurate and accessible Publication of results is timely and accurate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Processes in place to quality assure results • Accurate declarations of results (in Wales, in both English and Welsh) • Audit trails of verification and count paperwork • Statement of results (in Wales, in both English and Welsh) and where they are published 	All those who have observed the election have confidence in the conduct of the election	Election results are accurate and readily available
Resources – identification and allocation of budget and staffing Training – identification and delivery of training to meet the needs of both permanent and temporary staff	Maintaining electoral integrity	Ensuring the security of election materials Engagement with local SPOC Develop a fraud/integrity plan and work with the appropriate authorities to support the investigation of any allegations of electoral fraud/integrity issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risk register showing security risks and associated mitigations • Fraud/integrity plan, including risk assessments and mitigations • Allegations of electoral fraud/integrity issues referred to the police 	Voters can easily access the results of the election Voters have confidence their vote is secure	Analysis of police data relating to allegations of electoral fraud/integrity issues