Subject: FOI 004-23 - Response

Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI-004-23

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 23 January 2023 and received by the Commission on 24 January 2023.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is shown below followed by our response.

I would like to get hold of a copy of the constitution of the Reform Party. Can you provide this? Thank you.

On 27 January 2023 we requested clarification from you regarding the full name of the party you were referring to. You replied and confirmed this was the Reform UK party.

Our response is as follows:

We hold the information you have requested.

We have previously published Reform UK's registered constitution as part of another FOI response. You can find the constitution here.

Providing you with a link to this previously published response, rather than sending you the document itself, is in line with section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act which states that we are exempt from providing the information (the document) if it is reasonably accessible elsewhere.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority and I trust that this information satisfies your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/.

Yours sincerely
