Commission

Issue 350 (England) – 2 March 2023

May 2023 elections: polling station handbook

The final print-ready polling station handbook for the May 2023 local government elections in England has now been published on our website, replacing the reference version published earlier in February, along with the quick guide for polling station staff.

We expect hard copies to be delivered to those who have ordered them in the week commencing 13 March. As always, if you have any questions or require any assistance, please do contact your local Commission Team.
