

Mayoral elections in England

Guidance for candidates and agents

Part 2b of 6 – Standing as a party candidate

March 2023

This document applies to mayoral elections in England (excluding combined authority mayoral elections and elections for the Mayor of London). It does not apply to district, borough, county, unitary or parish council elections or elections to the Greater London Authority. Our guidance and resources for other elections in the UK can be accessed from our website at:

Essential information

This section of the document contains our guidance on standing as a party candidate at a mayoral election in England.

Supplementary information, which may only be relevant to some candidates, is provided at the back of this document. You can also view this supplementary guidance by clicking on the links within this document or by clicking on the chapter heading on the contents page.

In this document, we use 'you' to refer to the candidate. We use 'must' when we refer to a specific requirement. We use 'should' for items we consider to minimum good practice, but which are not legal or regulatory requirements.

Deadlines mentioned in this document are generic. We have published a generic election timetable on our website. For any by-elections, you will be able to obtain a copy of the specific timetable for that election from the Returning Officer.

For scheduled elections, we will publish an election timetable, which you can download from our website.

We are here to help, so please contact your local Commission team if you have any questions.

See our Overview document for contact details.

This document does not cover combined authority mayoral elections or elections for the Mayor of London. You can access guidance for those elections through our website.

Data protection legislation applies to the processing of all personal data.

Please contact the Information Commissioner's Office for further information about how the current data protection legislation affects you.

Completing your nomination papers

1.1 To become nominated as a candidate at a mayoral election in England, you need to submit a completed set of nomination papers to the place fixed by the Returning Officer by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll¹. This deadline is set out in law and cannot be changed for any reason. The start date from which you will be able to submit nomination papers, as well as the times and place for delivery, will be set out in the notice of election published by the local Returning Officer².

Alongside your nomination papers, you must also lodge a deposit of £500 with the Returning Officer. See paragraph 1.36 for further details.

1.2 There are three nomination papers that you must submit to make your nomination valid³:

- the nomination form
- a home address form
- your consent to nomination

1.3 To stand on behalf of a registered political party, the party must be registered on the Commission's register of political parties at <http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk> and be listed as allowed to field candidates in England, and you will also need to submit the following:

- A certificate authorising you to use the party name or a registered description on the ballot paper (known as the certificate of authorisation). For more details on the certificate of authorisation, see paragraph 1.19.
- A written request to use one of the party's emblems (if you would like one to appear on the ballot paper). For more information on the emblem request form, see paragraph 1.23.

1.4 You can obtain nomination papers from the local elections office. Contact details can be obtained from our website <https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/voter> alternatively, the Commission has produced a set of nomination papers that you could use.

1.5 If you, your agent or someone you trust are unable to complete the nomination form, the Returning Officer can help by preparing the form for your signature⁴.

1.6 The Returning Officer may also be able to offer informal checks of your completed nomination papers before you submit them. You should find out from the Returning Officer whether they plan to offer informal checks.

1.7 Note that any information you provide on your nomination papers must be true to the best of your knowledge. It is an offence to provide a false statement on your nomination papers. Providing a false statement could invalidate your election, and is also punishable by an unlimited fine and/or imprisonment⁵.

The nomination form

1.8 The nomination form must be completed in English. The form must contain:

- Your full name⁶. This means your surname and other names in full. Using initials only could lead to your nomination form being rejected. Also, do not use prefixes such as Mr, Mrs, Dr or Cllr as part of your name. The same applies to suffixes. However, if you have a title, you can use this as your full name. For example, if your actual name is Joseph Smith but your hereditary title is Joseph Avon, you can use the name Joseph Avon as your full name.
- Signatures of 30 registered electors⁷ (known as subscribers) from the local authority. This can include people from one ward, or from different wards within the local authority. The subscribers must appear on the local government electoral register that is in force on the 25th working day before the poll. For more information on subscribers, see paragraph 1.84.

1.9 The following is optional:

- A commonly used name⁸ – if you commonly use a name that is different from any forename or surname

The RO can hold your nomination paper invalid if the particulars of your nomination are not as required by law.

The RO can also reject your nomination if they conclude that it is clearly a sham, for example, if an obviously fictitious name is provided.

Your name and description (if you choose to use one) should be written on the nomination form before you ask subscribers to sign the form.

that you have and you wish this to appear on the ballot paper, you need to state this on the nomination form. More details are provided in paragraph 1.77.

- A description⁹ – you can ask for either the party’s name as registered with the Commission or one of the party’s registered descriptions to appear on the ballot paper underneath your name.

If you want to use a party name or description, you must submit alongside your other nomination papers a certificate that shows that you are authorised to use the party’s name or description (known as a certificate of authorisation). The certificate must be issued by the registered party’s Nominating Officer (or someone authorised to act on their behalf) and be received by the Returning Officer by the nominations deadline, i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. Further information on the certificate is provided in paragraph 1.19.

Registered party names and registered descriptions can be found on our online register.

If you are standing on behalf of two or more parties, you may use a joint description as registered with the Commission. In that case, you will need authorisation from the Nominating Officer for each of the registered parties (or people authorised to act on their behalf).

You should take particular care when completing the descriptions field on the nomination form. The party name/description used on the nomination paper must exactly match the party name/description on the Commission’s online register of political parties. If it does not, the whole nomination form will be rejected.

If you wish to stand as an independent candidate, see Part 2a: Standing as an independent candidate for further information.

You do not have to use a description. You may choose not to have a description at all by leaving the description field of the form blank.

Home address form¹⁰

1.10 The home address form must state:

- your full name (see paragraph 1.8)
- your home address in full

- your qualifying address, or, where you have declared on your consent to nomination that you meet more than one qualification, your qualifying addresses
- which of the qualifications your qualifying address or addresses relate to
- the full name and the home address in full of the witness to your consent to nomination form

1.11 Your home address:

- must be completed in full
- must not contain abbreviations
- must be your current home address
- must not be a business address (unless you run a business from your home)

1.12 You may choose for your home address not to be published on the statement of persons nominated or the ballot papers.

In this case the home address form must contain, as well as your full name and home address:

- a statement, signed by you, which states that you require your home address not to be made public
- the name of the relevant area in which your home address is situated (if your home address is in the UK)
- if you live outside the UK, the name of the country in which your home address is situated

Meaning of qualifying address and relevant area¹¹

1.13 Qualifying address means:

- where you have selected option (a) on the consent to nomination form, the address in full where you are registered as a local government elector
- where you have selected option (b) on the consent to nomination, a description and the address of that land or premises which you have occupied as owner or tenant
- where you have selected option (c) on the consent to nomination, the address of your place of work
- where you have selected option (d) on the consent to nomination, the address or addresses in full of where you have resided

1.14 Relevant area means:

- For home addresses in England:
 - if the address is within a district for which there is a district council, that district;
 - if the address is within a county in which there are no districts with councils, that county;
 - if the address is within a London borough, that London borough;
 - if the address is within the City of London (including the Inner and Middle Temples), the City of London; and
 - if the address is within the Isles of Scilly, the Isles of Scilly
- For home addresses in Wales:
 - if the address is within a county, that county;
 - if the address is within a county borough, that county borough
- For home addresses in Scotland:
 - the local government area in which the address is situated
- For home addresses in Northern Ireland:

- the local government district in which the address is situated

Consent to nomination¹²

1.15 You must also formally consent to your nomination in writing. The content of the consent to nomination form is fixed by law and the entire form must be returned in order for your nomination to be valid. On the form you will be asked to state that you are qualified and not disqualified from standing. You must also state your date of birth.

1.16 You must meet at least one of the qualifications to stand for election, as explained in Part 1: Can you stand for election? On the consent to nomination form you should state as many of the qualifications as apply.

1.17 You are not allowed to sign the consent form earlier than one calendar month before the deadline for submitting your nomination papers¹³. Your signature must be witnessed and the witness must attest the form¹⁴. The witness's full name and home address in full must be provided on the home address form. There are no restrictions on who can be a witness to the consent to nomination¹⁵.

The certificate of authorisation¹⁶

1.18 Political parties authorise candidates to stand for them by issuing a certificate of authorisation. This must state that the named candidate can stand on their behalf and allow them to use one of the following:

- the exact party name as registered with the Commission
- one of the party's registered descriptions
- your choice of either the registered party name or one of the registered descriptions.

1.19 Particular care should be taken by the Nominating Officer (or someone authorised to act on their behalf) when completing the certificate of authorisation. If the certificate explicitly authorises a particular party name/description and this does not match the party name/description on the nomination paper, the whole nomination will be invalid.

1.20 The certificate of authorisation must be signed by the registered Nominating Officer of the political party or by someone authorised by the Nominating Officer to act on their behalf.

1.21 If you are standing on behalf of two parties jointly, you will need a certificate of authorisation from the Nominating Officer of each of the registered parties (or people authorised to act on their behalf). Joint descriptions are listed on the Commission's register of political parties on the registration page for the relevant parties.

Request to use an emblem on the ballot paper¹⁷

1.22 If you have been authorised by a political party to use the party name or a description on the ballot paper, you can also request that one of the party's official emblems is printed on the ballot paper next to your name.

1.23 You must make the request for an emblem in writing and deliver it to the Returning Officer. The request must be received by the Returning Officer before 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The Returning Officer will supply you with a form you can use to make this request or, alternatively, you can use the emblem request form produced by the Commission.

1.24 The request should state both the name of the political party and the description of the emblem to be used, as listed on the Commission's online register of political parties. Registered emblems cannot be varied in any way.

1.25 Candidates standing on behalf of two or more registered parties and using a joint description can use an emblem that has been registered by one of the relevant parties. The request must be made in writing and delivered to the Returning Officer by the close of nominations, i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The Returning Officer will supply you with a form you can use to make this request or, alternatively, you can use the emblem request form produced by the Commission. The request should state the name of the political party that has registered the emblem you wish to use and the

A party can register up to three emblems. You may want to check with your party (e.g. with the Nominating Officer or someone authorised to act on their behalf) which emblem to use. Make sure you request a current emblem, as registered with the Commission on the online register of political parties.

description of the emblem to be used, as listed on the Commission's online register of political parties.

Submitting your nomination papers

1.26 All nomination papers, including the home address form and the consent to nomination, certificate of authorisation and emblem request form, must be delivered to the place specified on the notice of election by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll¹⁸. For details on submitting the required deposit, see paragraph 1.36 below.

1.27 It is your responsibility to ensure that your nomination papers are delivered in the correct manner and by the required deadlines. We recommend that you, your agent, or someone you trust delivers them, so you can be sure they are delivered to the Returning Officer in time.

How must nomination papers be submitted?

1.28 The nomination form, the home address form and consent to nomination must be delivered by hand and cannot be submitted by post, fax, e-mail or other electronic means¹⁹. The certificate of authorisation and the emblem request form may be submitted by post, but may not be submitted by fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

1.29 The original version of each completed paper must be submitted²⁰. A certificate of authorisation which has been sent as an attachment to an email to be printed out, for example, would make it a 'copy document' and not the original document.

When must nomination papers be submitted?

1.30 You should submit your nomination papers as early as possible to give the Returning Officer an opportunity to conduct an informal check and to give you sufficient time to submit new nomination papers should your first set contain any errors.

1.31 The notice of election will be published no later than 25 working days before the poll and will state the earliest date on which you can submit nomination papers²¹. In most cases, the notice of election will be published on the local authority's website.

1.32 Usually, nomination papers can only be delivered during normal office hours. The Returning Officer will confirm the exact details of when and where they can be delivered on the notice of election.

1.33 You should contact the Returning Officer as soon as possible to find out what arrangements are in place for submitting nomination papers. You will be able to contact the Returning Officer via the local elections office. Contact details can be obtained from our website <https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/voter>.

1.34 If, after you have submitted your nomination papers you change your mind and no longer want to stand for election, you can withdraw, provided you do so by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll²². For more details on withdrawing, see paragraph 1.40.

The deposit²³

1.35 For your nomination to be valid, the sum of £500 must be deposited with the Returning Officer by the deadline for nominations, 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The deposit can be made using:

- cash (British pounds only)
- a banker's draft

1.36 The Returning Officer may also accept a deposit made by a building society cheque, a debit or credit card or an electronic funds transfer. However, they may refuse to do so. If you are considering paying the deposit in one of these ways, you should discuss with the Returning Officer at the earliest opportunity whether the payment method is acceptable.

1.37 If the Returning Officer allows the deposit to be paid by credit or debit card, there may be a fee charged by the bank or credit card company for the transaction, in which case you will be required to pay any additional fees as well as the £500 deposit.

1.38 Candidates who poll more than 5% of the valid first preference votes will have their deposit returned. Those candidates who have polled less than, or equal to, 5% of the valid first preference votes will lose their deposit.

Withdrawing²⁴

1.39 You may withdraw as a candidate by signing and submitting a withdrawal notice, which must be witnessed by one other person. There are no restrictions on who may submit the notice, but it must be delivered by hand. Your witness must also sign the notice. A notice of withdrawal can be obtained from the local Returning Officer or downloaded from our website.

1.40 If you are outside the UK and want to withdraw, your proposer can sign the withdrawal notice on your behalf and the withdrawal must be accompanied by a written declaration signed by your proposer confirming your absence. If you are outside the UK and stand nominated by more than one nomination form, you should speak to the Returning Officer if you wish to withdraw as special rules apply in this instance.

1.41 The withdrawal notice must be submitted by the deadline for withdrawals (i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll). After the withdrawal deadline it is not possible to withdraw from the election, and your name will appear on the ballot paper. If the election is uncontested, you will be declared elected.

1.42 If you withdraw as a candidate, your deposit will be returned.

What happens after the close of nominations?

1.43 The Returning Officer will publish a statement of persons nominated by 4pm on the 18th working day before the poll²⁵. The statement will include²⁶:

- the full or commonly used names, as the case may be, of all candidates validly nominated
- the names of candidates who no longer stand nominated, if any (i.e. invalid and withdrawn candidates), with the reason why they are no longer standing
- the address of each candidate or, if they have requested not to make their home address public, the name of the relevant area in which their home address is situated (or the country, if their home address is situated outside the UK)
- each candidate's description (if any)

Inspecting candidates' nomination forms and consent to nomination forms

1.44 From the close of nominations until the day before the poll, nomination forms and consent to nomination forms, that have been delivered are open to inspection by anyone during normal office hours, and anyone can take a copy of them²⁷.

Inspecting the home address form²⁸

1.45 During normal office hours from the close of nominations until the day before the poll, only certain people are entitled to inspect home address forms. These people are:

- any person standing nominated as a candidate in the same electoral area as you
- the election agent of any person standing nominated as a candidate in the same electoral area as you (or, if the candidate is acting as their own agent, any person nominated by them)

- the proposer or seconder of any other person standing nominated as a candidate in the same electoral area as you

1.46 No person is permitted to take an extract from them or make a copy of them.

Will the election be contested or uncontested?

1.47 After the close of nominations, the Returning Officer will need to establish whether or not there is a need to hold a poll. If there is more than one candidate after the deadline for withdrawals, there will be a poll²⁹.

1.48 If, however, after the deadline for withdrawals there is only one validly nominated candidate, that candidate is declared to be elected³⁰.

1.49 In this case, the Returning Officer will declare that candidate to be elected as mayor as soon as possible and will give public notice of this.

Appointing your election agent and other agents

1.50 The election agent is the person responsible for the proper management of your election campaign and, in particular, for its financial management. You must have an election agent. If you do not appoint an agent, you will become your own agent by default³¹.

1.51 Once appointed, payments for election expenses can only be made by or through the election agent³².

1.52 You can also appoint other agents to observe the following electoral processes, which both you and your election agent are also entitled to observe³³:

- the opening of postal votes
- the poll
- the count

If elected at an uncontested election, candidates must still make a declaration as to their election spending.

See Part 3: Spending and donations for further details.

Further information on taking up office is included in Part 6: After the declaration of result.

For more information about candidate spending see:

Part 3: Spending and donations

Who can be an election agent?

1.53 There are no particular qualifications needed to be an election agent and you can be your own agent if you wish.

1.54 However, the following people are not allowed to be election agents³⁴:

- the Returning Officer or a member of their staff
- a partner or clerk of the Returning Officer or a member of their staff
- anyone not entitled to vote at the election as a result of the report of an election court or a conviction for a corrupt or illegal practice under the Representation of the People Act 1983

1.55 Your party may also have specific rules about who you can appoint as an election agent.

Appointing an election agent

1.56 Because of the responsibilities attached to the role of an election agent you should consider carefully who you are going to appoint and make sure that they understand their obligations. You can be your own agent if you wish.

1.57 You, or someone on your behalf, must declare in writing the name, address and office address of your election agent to the Returning Officer by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll³⁵. The declaration should be signed by you (or the person making the declaration on your behalf) and by the agent to show their acceptance of the appointment. The original signed version must be submitted in person or by post, but may not be submitted by fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

It is helpful to also provide a contact telephone number and email address for your election agent, so that the Returning Officer can easily contact them.

1.58 The Returning Officer may provide a declaration form, or you could use the election agent declaration form produced by the Commission. If you do not appoint someone else as your agent by the deadline, you will automatically become your own agent³⁶.

1.59 Your agent must have an office address to which any legal notices can be delivered and therefore must be a physical address³⁷ – PO boxes or similar mailboxes cannot be used.

1.60 Your agent's office address must be³⁸:

- within the same local government area where the election is being held, or
- within the UK Parliamentary constituency or one of the constituencies included in the local government area, or
- in a Welsh county borough which adjoins the local government area, or
- within a London borough or district which adjoins the local government area

1.61 The agent's office address will often be their home address, but it could be the local party office or an office set up for the election.

1.62 If you act as your own election agent, unless you provide an office address, your home address as provided on the home address form will be published on the notice of election agents³⁹. If that address is outside the relevant area, the office address is deemed to be the address of your proposer (i.e. the first subscriber on your nomination form)⁴⁰.

1.63 This is the case even where you have chosen to withhold your home address from the statement of persons nominated and ballot papers.

Revoking an election agent's appointment

1.64 You can revoke the appointment of your election agent at any time⁴¹, including after polling day, and a new appointment can be made in the same manner as outlined above. If you revoke your election agent's appointment and do not appoint anyone else, you will be deemed to be your own election agent.

The local government area for a unitary authority is the unitary area. For a county, district or borough it is the area of that county, district or borough.

1.65 If you are acting as your own agent you can revoke your own appointment and appoint someone else as your agent.

1.66 Once an agent has accepted their appointment, they cannot resign and must fulfil the duties required of them unless you revoke their appointment.

Appointing postal voting, polling and counting agents

1.67 You or your election agent may appoint other people as agents to attend postal vote openings, polling stations and the count⁴².

1.68 Anyone, apart from those listed in paragraph 1.55, can be appointed as a postal vote, polling or counting agent. Both you and your election agent can also automatically act as one of these agents without the need of an official appointment⁴³.

1.69 The number of agents who may be appointed to any particular polling station is limited to four⁴⁴, or such greater number as the Returning Officer decides to allow. If more than that number are appointed, the Returning Officer will draw lots to determine those people who may attend. Only one polling agent for each candidate can be present in a polling station at any time, but a polling agent can be appointed to attend multiple polling stations. Your right and your election agent's right to attend will remain unaffected by this.

1.70 The Returning Officer will tell you the maximum number of postal voting and counting agents you can appoint⁴⁵. All candidates will be allowed to appoint exactly the same number. At the count, unless there are special circumstances, the number of counting agents allowed for each candidate will not be less than the number obtained by dividing the number of counting assistants (i.e. those staff employed on the counting) by the number of candidates⁴⁶.

1.71 The request to appoint these agents must be made in writing to the Returning Officer⁴⁷. It must contain the names and addresses of the people being appointed⁴⁸. The Returning Officer will provide forms you can use for this, or you can find

postal voting, polling and counting agent appointment forms on the Commission's website.

1.72 The deadline for appointing these agents will depend on the process they are to attend. Polling and counting agents must be appointed by the fifth working day before the poll⁴⁹. However, appointment forms for postal voting agents only need to be submitted to the Returning Officer by the time fixed for the opening of postal votes they want to attend⁵⁰. The Returning Officer will give you at least 48 hours' notice before the scheduled start of each postal vote opening session⁵¹.

1.73 If an agent dies or becomes incapable of acting, you may appoint another agent in their place by submitting the relevant appointment form to the Returning Officer⁵². Any new appointment in these circumstances must be made without delay.

1.74 More information on what agents can and cannot do and what they can expect to see at postal vote opening sessions, polling stations and the count, can be found in Part 5: Your right to attend key electoral events.

Death of a candidate

1.75 If a candidate dies during the election period, see paragraph 1.92 for further information on how this will affect the election.

Supplementary information

Commonly used name(s)

1.76 If you commonly use a different name from your actual name, you can ask for your commonly used name(s) to be used instead of your actual name⁵³. For example, you may be known by your abbreviated name 'Andy', rather than your full first name 'Andrew'. In that case, you can write 'Andy' into the commonly used forename box on the nomination paper if you would rather that name appear on the ballot paper.

1.77 However, you cannot use your first name as a commonly used name so that only your first name and surname appear on a ballot paper, thus excluding your middle name. The legislation makes it clear that a commonly used name is one which is different from any other forename or surname⁵⁴. This means that a forename in its original format cannot be used as a commonly used name. If you wish to use a commonly used forename and/or surname then these must be different from your full name as it appears on the nomination form. For example, in the case of Andrew John Smith, he could not use Andrew Smith as his commonly used name, although he would be able to use Andy Smith (if Andy was the name by which he is commonly known).

1.78 If you have a hyphenated surname you may choose to use one part of your surname if this is how you are commonly known. For example, in the case of Andrew Smith-Roberts, he could use Andrew Roberts, or Andrew Smith (if either was the name by which he is commonly known).

1.79 You can request to use a commonly used forename, surname or both.

1.80 You may also use initials as part of your commonly used name if you are commonly known by them.

1.81 Any commonly used name(s) would then appear on:

- the statement of persons nominated and the notice of poll, and
- the ballot papers

1.82 The Returning Officer will disallow commonly used names that are likely to mislead or confuse electors, or are obscene or offensive⁵⁵. If the name(s) are not permissible, the Returning Officer will write to you stating the reason for rejection. In those cases, your actual name will be used instead.

1.83 If either the commonly used forename or surname box is left blank, then your actual forename or surname, depending on which commonly used name box has been left blank, will be used.

1.84 It is an offence to give a false statement on your nomination form. Therefore if you choose to provide a commonly used name you must ensure that it is a forename or surname which you commonly use.

To find out how to obtain the electoral register, see:

Part 4: The Campaign

Signatures of subscribers

1.85 Each nomination form needs to be signed (subscribed) by 30 electors on the local government electoral register in the local authority area. The electors must be of voting age by polling day and be on the register that is in force on the last day for publication of notice of election⁵⁶.

1.86 The first two electors will sign and print their names as proposer and seconder, and the remaining 28 as assenters.

1.87 There is nothing to prevent you from subscribing your own nomination providing that you are registered in the local authority area.

1.88 The elector number of each subscriber as it appears on the electoral register, including the distinctive numbers or letters of the polling district, must be entered on the nomination form⁵⁷. The distinctive numbers/letters of the polling district can usually be found at the front of the register. Both the Returning Officer and Electoral Registration Officer will be able to advise you how the register is laid out.

1.89 You will be entitled to a free copy of the electoral register for the local authority area⁵⁸. You should use it to ensure that your nomination form is properly subscribed. You must ensure that you keep the electoral register secure and, once you have finished with it, ensure that it is securely destroyed.

1.90 If a nomination form contains more than 30 subscribers' signatures, only the first 30 will be accepted⁵⁹. If any of the first 30 subscribers is invalid, the Returning Officer must hold the nomination form invalid, regardless of whether the form contains more than 30⁶⁰.

1.91 Nomination forms should not be altered once they are subscribed. All of your details should be completed before you invite anyone to subscribe your nomination. Once the Returning Officer has formally accepted a nomination form, signatures cannot be withdrawn.

There may be some electors on the register who have registered anonymously because of risks to their safety.

Anonymously registered electors may not subscribe nomination forms.

Anonymous electors are shown on the register with just their poll number and the letter 'N' (rather than with their name and address).

Data protection legislation applies to the processing of all personal data.

Please contact the Information Commissioner's Office for further information about how the current data protection legislation affects you.

1.92 When collecting subscriber information, you should point out what the information will be used for, how personal data will be processed and kept secure. The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations. You should also explain that the information will be shared with the Returning Officer. For further information on data protection and processing you should refer to the Returning Officer's privacy notice on their website.

Death of a candidate

1.93 If the Returning Officer is notified of a candidate's death during the election campaign or even on polling day itself (but before the declaration of the result), the poll will be cancelled⁶¹.

1.94 The Returning Officer will in that case order a new election to fill the vacancy⁶². The new polling day will be within 35 working days of the day fixed for the first election. Candidates already validly nominated do not have to be nominated a second time.

1.95 Should a fellow candidate die during the campaign, the Returning Officer will provide you with further guidance.

1.96 If an already elected candidate dies after the declaration of the result, a by-election would be needed to fill the vacancy.
