Emergency proxies on the grounds of voter ID

We have published a new application form to enable voters to apply for an emergency proxy on the grounds of voter ID. The form is available in the voter-facing section of our website.

You can find our guidance for EROs on emergency proxies on the grounds of voter ID here.

May 2023 elections: public awareness resources

Our 'Got 5?' voter registration campaign which asks people to use those spare minutes they might have to register to vote, will run up until the voter registration deadline for the May 2023 local elections in England on Monday 17 April.

With under one week left until the deadline we wanted to remind you of the digital and print resources you can download to help raise awareness of the fast-approaching deadline, as well as the different ways to vote.
