

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you cannot vote in person, you can have someone you trust vote on your behalf.

If you have had a medical emergency that took place after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll which means that you cannot vote in person at your polling station, you can apply to vote by emergency proxy.

You can apply until 5pm on the day of the poll.

You can also use this form if you have been detained in a hospital under the civil sections of the Mental Health Act 1983.

This form applies only in England.

To vote by proxy, both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A proxy can vote for a maximum of 4 people. No more than 2 of those people can be domestic electors. Domestic electors are voters who are neither overseas voters nor service voters.

For more information, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/proxyvote.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- Ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you need to vote by proxy and may need a qualified person to support your application. See notes on page 2 for information on who can support your application.
- Make sure all required sections of the form are complete and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office.
- This form can only be used after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll.
- Your form must arrive at your local electoral registration office before 5pm, on the day of the poll.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details and more information at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission.

If you are not registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a proxy vote.

The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.

Application to vote by emergency proxy in England based on disability

Who can support my application?

If they are giving care or treating you for the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered medical practitioner (includes dentist, optician, pharmacist, osteopath, chiropractor or psychologist)
- a registered nurse
- a registered health professional.

If they are giving care, treating you, or have arranged care or assistance in respect of the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered social worker.

Alternatively your application can be supported by:

- the manager, or their authorised representative, at the registered hospital where you are being treated.
- the person registered as running the residential care home you live in
- the warden of the premises you live in that are provided for people of pensionable age or disabled persons.

If you are registered blind by a local authority and your application is based on your blindness, you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete part 2B.

If you are in receipt of a benefit payment (listed below) because of the disability specified in the application, then you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete part 2C.

Benefit payments include:

- a higher rate of the mobility component of a disability living allowance
- the enhanced rate of the mobility component of the personal independence payment
- an armed forces independence payment

If you have been detained in hospital under the civil sections of the Mental Health Act 1983, you must complete part 2D. Your application must be supported by:

- the manager of the registered hospital at which you are detained, or their authorised representative.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- Your local electoral registration office will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
- You must tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party, or outcome.
- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf.

Privacy statement

This privacy notice tells you what will happen to the personal information you supply with this application form.

The Electoral Registration Officer is the Data Controller for the purposes of data protection legislation. Their lawful basis for collecting the personal information is that the processing is necessary in order to perform a task in the public interest as set out in the Representation of the People Act 1983 and related regulations.
