Subject: FOI 159-23 - Response

Dear [REDACTED],

Our Ref: FOI-159-23

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 23 October 2023 and received by the Commission on 24 October 2023.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is shown below followed by our response.

Can you please provide the constitution held on record for Reform UK Limited.

Our response is as follows:

We hold the information you have requested.

The information you have requested has already been disclosed in response to a separate request for information. You can find that information on our website here: FOI 125-21. Because this information is reasonably accessible to you by other means, it is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 21 removes the need to provide information in our response if it is reasonably accessible to an applicant by other means.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority and I trust that this information satisfies your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: <https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request>.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely

Information Officer
