Issue 360 (Wales) – 8 February 2024

New Chief Executive and Director of Electoral Administration and Guidance

This week we announced the appointment of our new Chief Executive, Vijay Rangarajan, who will be joining the Electoral Commission on Monday 4 March. Vijay joins the Commission from the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office, where he is currently Director General. He has worked in the role on climate, energy and the environment, global health and covid, and a wide range of countries. He also served as the British Ambassador to Brazil and worked in the Ministry of Justice and Cabinet Office on electoral issues, leading the programme to establish individual electoral registration, and wider issues relating to political and constitutional reform of the UK.

We are also pleased to introduce Jackie Killeen who has also joined the Commission as our new Director of Electoral Administration and Guidance. Jackie has worked across the public sector for over two decades, most recently as Chief Regulator for the Equality and Human Rights Commission, where she led regulation of the Equality and Human Rights acts. She previously worked to build trust and opportunities between the UK and countries internationally while with the British Council, and many years in senior funding roles including as Director Scotland at the National Lottery Community Fund. Jackie is looking forward to working with you and all electoral stakeholders across the UK to support the delivery of well-run elections and help ensure public confidence in our democratic process.

May 2024 elections: guidance update

Further to Bulletin 359, we have updated the supporting resources for Local Returning Officers to reflect the changes that will be in effect for the Police and Crime Commissioner elections on 2 May 2024, including the postal vote handling and secrecy provisions.

This includes the polling station handbook and related training resources such as the updated template briefing slides for polling station staff and the postal vote return form. Please note that this is not the final print-ready version of the polling station handbook, but a final text version reflecting the postal vote handling in process, which is

May 2024 elections: call for polling station data

This year we are once again running the polling station finder, in partnership with Democracy Club, to help make sure voters have access to accurate and timely information about how and where they can vote.

We need your updated polling station information to make sure voters head to the right polling station. By having this information easily available online, it should help to reduce the number of calls you'll get from voters looking for this information.

Providing your data is straightforward. You can export the data from your EMS, and then upload it using Democracy Club's easy-to-use tool. Alternatively, you can still email it to pollingstations@democracyclub.org.uk. Detailed instructions are available for each supplier, if you need them.

To make sure we have time to change the information, we ask that you send your polling station data as soon as possible, if you have not done so already.

If you would like to see the polling station finder on your own website, you can embed our election widget.

More than 60 schools and organisations across Wales signed up to take part in the week to young people to learn about our democracy, voting and more. With the theme of 'Your Voice Matters', the week made sure that young people know that everyone can make an impact in society by getting involved in democracy.

We saw young people taking part in democracy lessons, registration drives, talks with local representatives, and social media campaigns. Our youth voice partners Children in Wales and the Democracy Box have recorded a podcast and created 'elections explained' videos and social media content.

Help us improve for 2025

With your feedback, we can make next year's Welcome to Your Vote Week even bigger and better. Please take a few minutes to share your thoughts on the week in our feedback survey.

If schools and youth groups in your area took part in Welcome to Your Vote Week, please pass on this school and youth group survey so they can share their thoughts and feedback too.
