Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI 086-23

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 26 June 2023.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is shown below followed by our response:
Please share all communications with or regarding the Homeland Party, as well as any documents or other materials held by the Electoral Commission regarding this entity.

We hold the information you have requested. Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act exempts from disclosure information which is reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means. In this case the information is reasonably accessible to you by accessing our response to that request here.

We recently responded to a Freedom of Information above, the request asks for all we hold about this party and four others. Pages 1-7 set out the response and exemptions. And the rest we hold, specific to the Homeland Party can be found on pages 30-36, 51-52 and 83-95.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority and I trust that this information satisfies your request. If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
