Subject: FOI 030-24 - Response

Dear [redacted],

Our Ref: FOI-030-24

Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission on 12 March 2024.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is shown below followed by our response.

Please supply me with a Freedom of Information compliance of limited scope.
Danny Corrigan was elected as Councillor with North Lanarkshire Council. Please supply his registered constituency and terms of office.

On 13 March 2024 you provided the following clarification:
My apologies, there's a typo, it's Danny Carrigan. I understand that he was a councillor for North Lanarkshire Council for some time.
He may have retired or passed on.
I understand that he was a Councillor with North Lanarkshire around the formation of the local government from the amalgamation of several smaller local authorities.
I'd appreciate from your archives his term of office and tenure with North Lanarkshire Council.

Our response is as follows:

We do not hold the information you have requested.

The Electoral Commission is an independent body which oversees elections and regulates political finance in the UK. We work to promote public confidence in the democratic process and ensure its integrity.

We are not responsible for recording the names of elected representatives, nor any records associated with their length of time in office.

Please see below for more information about what we do in elections and referendums.

- What we do in referendums

Section 16 of the Freedom of Information Act is the duty to assist; please see the Freedom of Information page for North Lanarkshire Council should you wish to request this information from them.

You may also be able to find this information by searching The Election Centre's website.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority. If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/.

Yours sincerely
