Thank you for your email to the Electoral Commission dated 29 March 2024 and received by the Commission on 2 April 2024.

Your request is shown below followed by our response.

Our response is as follows:

We do not hold the information you have requested.

Data on who votes in elections in the UK is only available by inspecting the marked electoral registers, held by each Electoral Registration Officer (ERO). The Commission does not hold the marked registers. You can find a list of all the local authorities that held elections in May 2023 here, on our website.

The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority. If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/freedom-information/make-a-freedom-information-request.

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: https://ico.org.uk/.

Yours sincerely
