Voting at a polling station

This section will explain how to vote at a polling station.

When you arrive at the polling station, a member of staff will ask you for your name and address.

The polling station is the place you go to vote in an election.

They will look for you on the voting register.

They will ask for your photo ID.

If they are happy with your photo ID, they will give you your ballot paper and let you know where you can fill it in.

The ballot paper is the piece of paper you fill in to vote.

Voting at a polling station

There will be a private area where staff can look at your photo ID.

If you want the staff to look at your photo ID in the private area, let them know when you arrive.

If you need any help when you are at the polling station, please ask the staff.
