Subject: FOI 12/17 - Complaints

Dear [REDACTED]

Our Ref: FOI 12/17

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 dated 16 February 2017.

The Commission aims to respond to requests for information promptly and has done so within the statutory timeframe of twenty working days.

Your request is in bold below followed by our response.

You have requested:

A full statistical count of all complaints of a sexual nature raised against members of staff at the the electoral commission between 1/1/2014 - 30/12/2016 by any member of the public.

Our response is as follows: in the period covered by the request there have been 23 complaints, none of which has involved a complaint of a sexual nature by a member of the public against a member of Commission staff.

We do not hold the information you have requested.

In the period covered by the request there have been 23 complaints, none of which has involved a complaint of a sexual nature by a member of the public against a member of Commission staff.

I trust that this information satisfies your request. The Commission strives to be an open, transparent authority.

If you are not satisfied with this response, please note that the Commission operates a review procedure, details of which can be found on the Commission website at: <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-requests/how-do-i-make-an-foi-request>

Please also note that if you have exhausted all internal Commission review procedures and you are still not satisfied you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: <http://www.ico.gov.uk>

Yours sincerely
