Essential information

This section of the document contains our guidance on attending key electoral processes at a district, borough, county, county borough or unitary authority election in England and Wales.

Supplementary information, which may only be relevant to some candidates, is provided at the back of this document. You can also view this supplementary guidance by clicking on the links within this document or by clicking on the chapter heading on the contents page.

In this document, we use ‘you’ to refer to the candidate. We use ‘must’ when we refer to a specific requirement. We use ‘should’ for items we consider to be minimum good practice, but which are not legal or regulatory requirements.

Deadlines mentioned in this document are generic and we have published a generic election timetable on our website. If a by-election has been called, you will be able to obtain a copy of the specific timetable for that election from the Returning Officer.

If you are standing at the local elections on 2 May 2019, we have published an election timetable containing the specific deadlines for those polls which you can download from our website.
The opening of postal votes

1.1 You and your election agent or a person appointed by you to attend in your election agent’s place are entitled to attend the opening of returned postal votes. Additionally, you may appoint agents to attend openings on your behalf. See Part 2a: Standing as an independent candidate or Part 2b: Standing as a party candidate for details on how to appoint these agents.

What is postal voting?

1.2 People aged 18 or over who are registered to vote, or have applied to be registered to vote, can apply to vote by post in local elections by submitting an application to their Electoral Registration Officer. The application must be received by the Electoral Registration Officer by 5pm on the eleventh working day before the poll. Those who have been appointed to vote as a proxy on behalf of someone else may also apply for a postal vote by applying by 5pm on the eleventh working day before the poll. The Electoral Registration Officer has no discretion to extend the deadline for whatever reason.

1.3 Postal ballot packs containing a ballot paper and postal voting statement will be sent to electors from around two weeks before polling day. There will be a final batch of postal ballot packs issued to electors who registered close to the registration deadline once their names have been added to the final register update on the fifth working day before the poll.

1.4 Electors will then mark their ballot paper, complete the postal voting statement by providing their signature and date of birth, and return them to the Returning Officer before the close of poll (i.e. 10pm on polling day).

What does the postal ballot pack contain?

- Envelope A is the envelope that the elector returns their ballot paper in. It is marked with the letter ‘A’ and the words ‘ballot paper envelope’
- Envelope B is the envelope that the elector will use to return the ballot paper envelope and the postal voting
The postal voting statement contains the elector's name, the number of the ballot paper issued to them, instructions on how to vote by post and space for the elector to sign and provide their date of birth.

The ballot paper

What does a postal voting agent do?

1.5 A postal voting agent is allowed to attend and observe postal vote opening sessions, which are run by the Returning Officer. At each opening session the Returning Officer will decide whether or not the date of birth and signature provided by electors on their postal voting statements match the signature and date of birth previously provided and held on their records. If there is a mismatch, the postal vote will be rejected.

1.6 A postal voting agent has a right to observe, but not to interfere with this process. A postal voting agent can, however, object to the decision of a Returning Officer to reject a postal vote. It will not affect the Returning Officer's decision, but the Returning Officer will record any objections by marking the postal voting statement with the words 'rejection objected to'.

1.7 Like your postal voting agents, you, your election agent and the person you may have appointed to attend on your election agent's behalf are also entitled to object to a rejection.

1.8 The Returning Officer will explain the postal vote opening process to you and may issue you with information on the procedures to be followed, including instructions on what you can and cannot do at the session. You should comply with any instructions that the Returning Officer has given.

Duty to maintain secrecy

1.9 Ballot papers will be kept face down throughout a postal vote opening session. Anyone attending an opening session must not attempt to see how individual ballot papers have been marked. It follows therefore that keeping a tally of how ballot papers have been marked is not allowed.
1.10 In addition, anyone attending a postal vote opening must not attempt to look at identifying marks or numbers on ballot papers, disclose how any particular ballot paper has been marked or pass on any such information gained from the session. Anyone found guilty of breaching these requirements can face an unlimited fine, or may be imprisoned for up to six months.

When are postal votes opened and how will you know when an opening session is taking place?

1.11 It is likely that several opening sessions will take place before polling day, as well as on polling day itself.

1.12 The Returning Officer must give candidates at least 48 hours’ notice of when and where the sessions will take place. They will also set out how many postal voting agents will be allowed to attend each session.

1.13 There will be a final opening session after the polls have closed to open any postal votes handed in to polling stations. This session may be held at the count venue or in another location. The Returning Officer will advise you of the location for the final opening.
Flowchart of the opening session process

1.14 The postal vote opening process can be summarised as follows:

1. Postal votes are brought to the opening session in ballot boxes

2. The covering envelopes (envelope B) are taken out and counted

3. The total number of covering envelopes is recorded

4. Covering envelopes (envelope B) are divided between teams of opening staff

5. Staff open each covering envelope (envelope B) and remove the postal voting statement and the sealed ballot paper envelope (envelope A)

6. Staff check that the number on the postal voting statement matches the number on envelope A

7. If the numbers match, staff check that the elector has provided a signature and a date of birth (without checking that they are the elector’s at this stage). Postal voting statements without a signature and date of birth cause the postal vote to be rejected.

A very small number of voters do not need to sign their postal voting statement. These voters will have been granted a waiver because they are unable to sign or provide a consistent signature due to a disability or an inability to read or write. The postal voting statement sent to such electors will make this clear.
If the statement or ballot paper envelope is missing, or the numbers on the statement and ballot paper envelope do not match, the document(s) are set aside, recorded and stored in secure packets.

The Returning Officer must verify the dates of birth and signatures provided on the statements.

The Returning Officer must be satisfied that the dates of birth and signatures on the statements match those previously provided and held on record.

Following verification of the signatures and dates of birth, postal voting statements are removed from the tables.

Staff open the ballot paper envelopes (envelope A) and remove the ballot paper.

Staff check that the number on the back of the ballot paper matches the number on the ballot paper envelope (envelope A).

Valid ballot papers (not votes) are counted and the total number is recorded.

All valid ballot papers are placed into ballot boxes and stored securely before being delivered to the count venue for counting after the close of poll.

Valid ballot papers are those ballot papers whose related postal voting statement has passed the signature and date of birth checks. Invalid ballot papers are set aside and stored in secure packets.

The Returning Officer will match up postal voting documents received separately, provided the statement is completed correctly and received by the close of poll.

Ballot papers must be kept face down throughout this process.
Invalid and rejected postal voting statements

1.15 Unless a waiver has been granted, the Returning Officer will reject a postal voting statement if a signature and/or date of birth is missing or if a signature and/or date of birth does not match that previously provided by the elector and held on record.

1.16 Rejected statements are attached to the relevant ballot paper or ballot paper envelope. They are marked as ‘rejected’ and shown to any agents present.

1.17 Agents can object to the Returning Officer’s decision to reject any postal vote and, if they do, the words ‘rejection objected to’ are added to it. However, the Returning Officer’s decision is final and the postal vote will remain rejected.

Polling stations

1.18 You and your election agent are entitled to observe proceedings inside polling stations. Additionally, you may appoint agents to attend polling stations on your behalf. See Part 2a: Standing as an independent candidate or Part 2b: Standing as a party candidate for details on how to appoint polling agents.

Who can vote at polling stations?

1.19 Most people choose to vote in person at their polling station. Any person on the polling station’s electoral register can vote at the polling station in a local election, unless:

- they are a registered postal voter
- they are a registered proxy voter and their proxy has already voted for them or has applied to vote on their behalf by post
- they are not 18 years of age or older on polling day
- they are registered as an overseas elector

1.20 Electors will receive a poll card before the election telling them where and when they can vote. Electors do not need to take their poll card to the polling station in order to vote.

1.21 Registered postal voters cannot be issued with a ballot paper at the polling station, but they can return their completed postal ballot pack to their polling station on polling day. Alternatively, they may return their postal vote to any polling station in the ward or by hand to the Returning Officer at the elections office.

1.22 Postal ballot packs returned to polling stations must be handed to polling station staff and not placed in the ballot box.

Polling station opening hours

1.23 Polling stations will be open on polling day between 7am and 10pm.

Finding the location of polling stations

1.24 The Returning Officer must give public notice of the location of polling stations by the sixth working day before the poll. They will give a copy of this notice to election agents soon after this.

What does a polling agent do?

1.25 Polling agents have a number of important roles to play on polling day. They can:

- be present in the polling station before the opening of the poll to watch the Presiding Officer show the empty ballot box before it is sealed
- detect personation and prevent people voting more than once in the election (other than as proxies)
- be present when the Presiding Officer marks a ballot paper at the request of an elector who needs assistance marking a ballot paper because of a disability or an inability to read or write
- report to you or your election agent any improper activities and keep notes, if required, for giving evidence in court
- be present at the close of poll when the various packets of documents are sealed
- attach their seal to any packets made up by the Presiding Officer at the close of poll, including the ballot box

1.26 You and your election agent can also do anything that a polling agent is entitled to do.
Maintaining the secrecy of the ballot

1.27 Anyone attending a polling station has a duty to maintain the secrecy of the ballot. In particular, the following information must not be disclosed:

- the name or electoral number of who has or has not voted
- the number or other unique identifying mark on the ballot paper

1.28 Anyone attending a polling station must also not try to ascertain how a voter has voted or who they are about to vote for.

1.29 A polling agent can mark off on their copy of the register of electors those voters who have applied for ballot papers. If the polling agent leaves the polling station during the hours of polling, they must leave the marked copy of the register in the polling station to ensure that secrecy requirements are not breached.

1.30 Any person found guilty of breaching the secrecy requirements can face an unlimited fine, or may be imprisoned for up to six months.

What is the normal voting process?

1.31 The normal voting process at a polling station is straightforward and can be summarised as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Polling station staff will…</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ask voters for their name and address, and make sure they are eligible to vote</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mark a straight line against the voter’s entry on the register of electors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>call out the number and name of the elector</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>write the elector number on a list next to the number of the ballot paper to be issued</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ensure the ballot paper includes the official mark (e.g. a barcode or watermark)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fold the ballot paper and then hand it to the voter unfolded so that they can see all of the options on the ballot paper</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

For more information see: Secrecy requirements – the poll for candidates in England and candidates in Wales

Where the election has been combined with another electoral event, polling station staff will be issuing the ballot papers for all electoral events.

Different electoral events may have different franchise requirements, so sometimes an elector will not be entitled to vote at all of the polls taking place.

Where polls are combined, a single ballot box may be used for all of the contests or one ballot box may be used for each separate contest.
1.32 The Presiding Officer can assist anyone who is unable to mark the ballot paper themselves. Alternatively, a voter may bring along someone they know and trust to assist them in marking their vote. The person assisting the voter must either be a close relative aged 18 or over, or a person entitled to vote at the election. A person can only assist a maximum of two voters at the election.

Collection of postal ballots from the polling station

1.33 The Returning Officer may arrange for the collection of any postal votes that electors have handed in at polling stations throughout polling day. The Presiding Officer must seal any returned postal votes in a packet before they are collected. Any agents present can add their own seal to the packet if they wish.

Tellers

1.34 Tellers are people who stand outside polling places and record the elector numbers of electors who have voted. They can then identify likely supporters who have not voted and encourage them to vote before the close of poll.

1.35 Tellers have no legal status and voters can refuse to give information to them.

1.36 We have produced a factsheet of tellers’ dos and don’ts, as well as more comprehensive guidance on the activities of tellers. The guidance aims to ensure that everyone knows precisely what is and is not acceptable and is designed to promote appropriate standards of conduct. The Returning Officer may also provide their own version of guidance to tellers.
What happens after polls close?

1.37 Once all voters who have been issued with a ballot paper have voted, the ballot box is sealed by the Presiding Officer and polling agents can add their own seal if they wish. After the Presiding Officer has completed all of the paperwork, the sealed ballot box is taken to the count venue.

The count

Who can attend the count?

1.38 You and your election agent are entitled to observe the count. Additionally, you can invite one other person to attend and you may also appoint agents to attend the count on your behalf.

1.39 See Part 2a: Standing as an independent candidate or Part 2b: Standing as a party candidate for details on the number of counting agents you may appoint and how to appoint them.

What does a counting agent do?

1.40 Counting agents have a number of important roles to play at the count:

- they observe the counting process and make sure that it is accurate
- they can draw to the attention of count staff any doubtful ballot papers
- if they disagree with a decision by the Returning Officer to reject a ballot paper, they can ask the Returning Officer to mark on the ballot paper “rejection objected to”
- if a count is suspended for any reason, counting agents can add their seals when the Returning Officer seals the ballot boxes and envelopes

1.41 You and your election agent can do anything a counting agent is allowed to do.
Duty to maintain secrecy

1.42 Anyone attending the count has a duty to maintain the secrecy of the count. In particular, anyone attending must not:

- ascertain or attempt to ascertain number or other unique identifying mark on the back of any ballot paper
- communicate any information obtained at the count as to the candidate for whom any vote is given on any particular ballot paper

When and where will the count take place?

1.43 The Returning Officer will notify you of the exact time and location.
How the votes will be counted

Check-in

1. The Returning Officer’s staff deliver the ballot boxes from the polling station to the count venue

2. The Returning Officer’s staff check in ballot boxes as they arrive at the count venue

Verification

3. Ballot boxes are emptied onto tables and the empty boxes are shown to agents

4. Staff count the ballot papers from each polling station

5. Staff verify that the number of ballot papers matches the number of papers issued, as recorded on the Presiding Officers’ ballot paper accounts

6. The verified ballot papers are shown to election and counting agents face up

7. The Returning Officer determines the reasons for any discrepancies and produces a final verified total

8. The Returning Officer produces a statement of the verification. Agents can view or copy this statement if they wish

Where the election has been combined with another electoral event, all ballot boxes will be verified before any results are declared.

There may be a single ballot box for all elections or separate boxes for each. In any case, ballot papers will be sorted into the separate contests.

Any ballot paper found in the ‘wrong’ ballot box is still valid and will be moved to the correct box during verification.
What if the vote on a ballot paper is not clear?

1.44 A ballot paper will not be counted if it:

- is unmarked
- does not contain the official mark
- contains votes for more candidates than the number of vacancies
- contains any mark or writing that can identify the voter
- does not indicate the voter’s intention with certainty

1.45 The Returning Officer must draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected for these reasons.
1.46 If the voter’s intention is clear on a ballot paper and the voter cannot be identified by any mark or writing, it will not be void if a vote is marked:

- elsewhere than in the proper place
- by other means than a cross (e.g. a tick)
- by more than one mark

1.47 The Returning Officer must mark the word “rejected” on any ballot paper that is rejected. They must add the words “rejection objected to” if a counting agent objects to the Returning Officer’s decision. For more details on the adjudication of doubtful ballot papers, see paragraph 1.49.

Equality of votes

If two or more candidates have the same number of votes, and a further vote for either would see the candidate elected, the Returning Officer must decide between them by drawing lots.

The Returning Officer will decide the method of drawing lots.

Declaration of result

The Returning Officer will declare elected the candidate (or candidates in the case of a multi-seat vacancy) with the most votes.

Some Returning Officers allow candidates to make speeches after the result is declared. Please check arrangements with your Returning Officer.

The Returning Officer will give public notice of the result.

The Returning Officer will publish a notice with the name of each candidate elected, the number of votes for all candidates, and the number of rejected ballot papers.
What happens to the paperwork after the result is announced?

1.48 The Returning Officer must seal all election documentation, add a description of the contents to each packet and forward them on to the Electoral Registration Officer.
Supplementary information

Doubtful ballot papers

1.49 To assist Returning Officers, we have produced guidance on how to adjudicate votes on ballot papers that may appear doubtful. This guidance is contained in our booklet Dealing with doubtful ballot papers, we have produced doubtful ballot paper placemats for one-member, two-member and three-member wards that Returning Officers may refer to at the count.

1.50 The examples given in these documents are based on the election rules. Please note that while these documents provide guidance for Returning Officers, each individual Returning Officer has the ultimate responsibility for making a decision on individual ballot papers. Their decision to reject a particular ballot paper during the count or recount is final and can be reviewed only at an election petition after the declaration of the result. For more details on election petitions, see Part 6: After the declaration of result.
